2000. EXTREMELY RARE U.S. MODEL 1900 AUTO PISTOL HOLSTER FROM ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL

This is an exceptionally fine example of a U.S.-issue regulation holster for the Colt Model 1900 service pistol, manufactured at Rock Island Arsenal. The leather remains mostly supple showing light crackling over most of the surface of the body with light crackling and flaking on the flex point of the closure flap and the top and rear edges of the suspension billet. The seams and stitching remain tight overall and the "U.S." on the cover flap remains mostly visible, being slightly light along its leading edge. The rear of the suspension billet is marked "Rock Island/Arsenal/EHS". This example is one of the 276 made to be worn "butt-forward", the Ordnance Department steadfastly clinging to the antiquated cavalry "twist draw" adopted when men wore swords on the left side which they would draw with the right hand. While these fine pistols are very rare, intact holsters for them are even more seldom-encountered, total production of only 326 units fabricated. This is a very fine example worthy of display with even the nicest Model 1900 pistol. (37027-9)

(1500/2000)

2001. EXCELLENT U.S. MODEL 1900 AUTO PISTOL REGULATION HOLSTER AND OFFICERS BELT

This is an excellent example of a private-purchase flap holster for the Colt Model 1900 pistol. The leather is overall smooth and is a dark brown-russet color; it shows the beginnings of some light crackling and a few minor scuffs and handling marks along the lower edge of the holster, the flex point of the flap and suspension billet at the rear showing the very lightest amount of crackling. The seam stitching is tight and intact around its periphery and the "U.S." embossing on the cover flap is strong. The holster is constructed nearly identically to the U.S. government arsenal-made examples, this example however is un-marked. The holster comes suspended from a regulation U.S. officers belt with a regulation pattern 1851 Eagle belt plate. The plate itself is a Hanover Brass reproduction and rates about excellent with crisp Eagle and wreath, the rear is marked "GW" and "HBF". The belt itself appears to be an original product with overall flaking and crackling but is still mostly supple with tight seam stitching (clearly re-stitched to attach this buckle). A very nice holster overall showing nice age yet still supple. (37027-11)

(1200/1800)

2002. VERY FINE U.S. MODEL 1900-1902 NON-REGULATION SWIVEL HOLSTER

This is an excellent example of a high-quality private-purchase swivel holster for the Colt Model 1900-1902 semi-auto pistols. The holster is constructed of brown leather and is overall smooth and supple showing only the very lightest beginning of crackling on the flex point of the cover flap. The seam stitching is intact around the entire periphery and there is a swiveling suspension billet attached with a single copper rivet at the rear of the holster. The flap is secured with simple snap attached to the body and flap of holster, the interior shows the imprint of a Colt Model 1902 pistol. The flap is maker marked in an oval by a maker in San Jose Costa Rica with a horse's head as its trademark; the entire embossing cannot be completely read but appears to be "Talanterian Inglesa/San Jose Costa Rica". Really an excellent example overall and a very nice accompaniment to any comprehensive collection of early Colt automatic pistols. (37027-10)

2003. NICE BRONZE BRITISH GRENADE MORTAR FROM LAPAN FOUNDRY

This is a nice little bronze mortar with a 2 1/4" bore about 3 1/2" deep with a 1 3/4" deep charge reservoir; it is lightly oxidized green. The outside diameter at the muzzle ring is about 4" with an overall length of roughly 7 1/2". The center reinforce shows a cast-in-relief cipher of King George "GR" and there is a small priming reservoir at the vent field. The trunnions are about 1 1/4" in diameter and 7/8" long, the left trunnion with LaPan foundry's intertwined "LP". The mortar sits atop a nice hardwood block bed with cast capsquares retained by captive wedges, chained to the body of the bed. There are brass handles on each side for carry. Purportedly originals would throw a 1 pound explosive shell a half-mile. The overall finish is slightly rough as-cast; the bore is a bit rougher. Really an attractive and compact little piece, likely tons of fun. (36985-2)

2004. BRONZE MUZZLELOADING SALUTE CANNON BARREL

This is a cast brass or bronze salute cannon, about 1 1/4" bore 14" deep with an oxidized slightly rough bore. The overall length is 16 3/4" and the body is smooth its entire length without reinforcements, astragals or fillets. The trunnions are 1 1/4" in diameter by about 1 1/4" in length and the rear shows a cast-in relief eyelet, perhaps the attachment for some manner of elevation device once on a carriage, the rearmost face of this as well shows a drilled and tapped hole, perhaps for some manner of tiller. The body of the cannon shows overall light dings with a couple that are moderate and a few that are heavy, one of the trunnions being slightly bent and showing a small crack. The underside about 4" from the muzzle shows what may be casting flaws in the surface, appearing to be small cracks, lightly crazed. The tube is completely unmarked and is vented, it is likely however this piece should be relegated to display only at this stage. Nonetheless it would make an impressive display piece properly dressed and polished with a nice carriage. Weight is about 30 Lbs. (36579-3)

2005. CAST IRON SALUTE OR DISPLAY CANNON BARREL This is a cast iron "howitzer"-looking barrel with 2" bore 18 1/2" deep and as-cast, slightly rough, with sprue at the rear-most section. The muzzle flare is rather generous and there are four round medials adjacent to the trunnions and the breech area is rather bulbous and also rather generous with two medials ahead of the cascabel. Slightly rough as-cast on the exterior, now painted black. The trunnions are about 1 5/8" in diameter and about 2 1/2" in length. The tube is not vented. Weight is about 50 Lbs. (36579-4)
2006. LARGE CAST IRON MOUNTAIN HOWITZER BARREL 2" bore about 19" deep, lightly and moderately oxidized. There is a flat muzzle face with a slightly raised medial, the outside diameter at the muzzle nearly 5". The body is mostly straight its full length with a slightly raised section at the trunnions. The overall length from the muzzle face to the very large cascabel is 26 1/4". The trunnions are 3" in diameter by about 2" long. Over all the metal surfaces are slightly rough as-cast with overall pits, it is currently painted a slightly oxidized black. The tube is vented and the weight is about 130 Lbs. (36519-576) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection] [Extra Shipping Will Apply]
2007. CAST IRON CANNON BARREL This is roughly-cast and could almost be considered a scale model of a British three-pounder. There is an about 1 3/4" bore about 33" deep with a rough as-cast bore showing a mould seam down the center of each side. There is a rough-cast muzzle face, slightly flaring muzzle ring, a smooth chase to two medials ahead of the trunnions-they are unturned. There is another medial just ahead of what would be the breech reinforce, but there is no actual "re-enforce" per se as the tube merely tapers front to rear without additional heavier reinforcing steps. There is a breech ring and a somewhat smallish cascabel giving an overall length of about 40". The trunnions are about 1 1/2" in diameter and about 3" long, they appear welded to the tube rather than being cast integrally. The tube is not vented and weight is 125 Lbs. A nice base overall for someone wishing to do their own final finishing for a display gun or the craftsman who wishes to go even further and machine the tube for a high tensile steel liner. (36519-577A) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection] [Extra Shipping Will Apply]
2008. CAST IRON CANNON BARREL This is roughly-cast and could almost be considered a scale model of a British three-pounder. There is an about 1 3/4" bore about 33" deep with a rough as-cast bore showing a mould seam down the center of each side. There is a rough-cast muzzle face, slightly flaring muzzle ring, a smooth chase to two medials ahead of the trunnions-they are unturned. There is another medial just ahead of what would be the breech reinforce, but there is no actual "re-enforce" per se as the tube merely tapers front to rear without additional heavier reinforcing steps. There is a breech ring and a somewhat smallish cascabel giving an overall length of about 40". The trunnions are about 1 1/2" in diameter and about 3" long, they appear welded to the tube rather than being cast integrally. The tube is not vented and weight is 125 Lbs. A nice base overall for someone wishing to do their own final finishing for a display gun or the craftsman who wishes to go even further and machine the tube for a high tensile steel liner. (36519-577B) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection] [Extra Shipping Will Apply]

2009. EXTREMELY NICE SCALE MODEL OF THE U.S. MODEL 1841 6-POUNDER

This is an extremely nice, read that Museum-grade, scale model of the U.S. model 1841 six-pounder field gun. The steel barrel has an about 5/8" bore 10" deep. The barrel is a nice reproduction of the full-size tube with muzzle face, flare, medial chase and slight reinforce nearer the breech from the trunnions rearward, with breech ring and cascabel. The barrel is mounted to an extremely nice siege carriage with the appropriate limber included. All the iron hardware is appropriately painted black, the faces of the tires worn to silvery brown gun-

metal. The "wood" pieces painted an olive drab green. The overall condition is quite nice with the tube showing a few small flaked areas, the wood on the wheels has shrunk slightly with age, a number of the felloes showing some prominent gaps due to shrinkage and the hub reinforces now slightly loose. Model is very detailed and working in every respect; a nice brass tompion is included. The cannon was purchased by the consignor from the George Woodbridge estate. George was a military historian and illustrated many books, you would recognize his work from George Neumann's Collector's Illustrated Encyclopedia of the American Revolution and American Military Equipage, 1851-1872 by Frederick P. Todd. He was named a fellow of the Company of Military Historians in 1961 and interestingly enough was also an illustrator for MAD Magazine of all things. Really just an absolutely super scale model. (36985-5) (500/700)

2010. SCALE MODEL U.S. MODEL 1841 6-POUNDER This is a very nicely-made model of a U.S. model 1841 six-pounder field gun. The bronze or brass barrel has a 7/8" bore 14 1/4" deep with the tube having an overall length of 16 1/2"; it is not vented. It has a nice turned muzzle face, flaring muzzle, fillet and astragal and smooth chase to the reinforce with a nicely turned breech ring and cascabel. The barrel sits atop a nice No. 1 field carriage. The tube is a deep tarnished ocher patina while the wooden portions of the carriage are an O.D. green with all the iron hardware painted black. One of the side handles on the tailstock is missing as is one of the capsquare wedges. The wheels are designed to rotate, although it would seem they need a little bit of oil, the elevation screw works well. Overall a very nicely made cannon that should have a little bit of work done to it and have some loading tools and perhaps a miniature tar bucket made for it. Overall length is about 33". with a maximum width of about 19". Very top-shelf overall however. (36519-641A) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection] (700/900)

2011. FINE SCALE MODEL NAVAL 6-POUNDER This is a nicely-made, what appears to be scale model of a Naval six-pounder, on a Naval or Garrison style carriage. It is just over 3/4" in diameter with a slightly to moderately oxidized bore 18 1/2" deep. The barrel is an overall length of about 23 1/2" with a lipped muzzle face and flared muzzle with two astragals with fillets and rings and ogees at each end of the second reinforce and a long-ish vent field ahead of the breech ring. The muzzle face is marked "Middleton Ironworks/Middleton New Hamp/DLN WT-47 LB N92" and it would appear as though there is a modern steel liner installed in the tube; the gun is vented. The trunnions are about 1 1/4" in diameter and roughly 2" long, the left one is marked "1982". This tube sits atop a nice-quality oak carriage in the Naval or Garrison style. The carriage itself rates very good plus to excellent with nice rounded wheels, without tires. There is an elevation chock in place which rides in a grooved bed affixed to the rear axle stretcher. One of the retaining pins which keeps the wheel on the axle is no longer present and one of the capsquare eyelets is missing, the one which is present is not drilled for a wedge. There is a nicely-made muzzle plug accompanying the gun and the overall length is about 24 1/2" and 11 1/2" wide. Really very nicely made, the black paint showing a number of minor chips flakes and handling marks. While it would appear as though this cannon was designed to be fired, clearly some work will need to be done to affix the capsquares in a more permanent fashion to keep barrel on carriage during firing. Very attractive overall, the weight of the entire unit is 60 pounds. (36519-641C) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection]

2011

2012. LARGE SCALE MODEL NAVAL-STYLE SALUTE CANNON This is a rather large iron-tube cannon with what appears to be a steel liner. The bore is about 2 3/8" in diameter and about 32" deep, lightly oxidized. The tube itself is in 7" diameter and about 43" overall length with a very large cascabel, almost the size of the diameter of the tube itself. This sits atop a Naval or Garrison style carriage of softwood, the barrel retained by two welded steel capsquares bolted to the top flat. There is a bead front sight affixed and a small peep sight rear; the gun is vented. The wheels are 7" in diameter and are wood, capped with sheet iron or tin, the overall length muzzle to end of carriage is about 44". There is no elevation block however one could be fabricated easily. The overall weight seems to be in excess of 230 Lbs. (36239-1) [Extra Shipping Will Apply]
2013. SPANISH SCALE MODEL NAPOLEON CANNON serial #11276, .70 Cal, 13 1/4" bore showing only some light oxidation. The steel barrel is about 15 1/4" overall and is mostly a bright pewter in color showing some sparsely scattered very light oxidation staining in a number of spots. The hardwood carriage rates about excellent with nearly all its original varnish intact and only a light handling mark here or there. The balance of all the metal is finished bright and largely unstained. The gun includes the chained wheel stop and both rammer/cleaning brushes are present. The barrel is "Jukar Spain"-marked along with the caliber and serial number. A nice example overall that would be super for Fourth of July or any other occasion worthy of celebration. (36935-48)

2014. SPANISH SCALE MODEL NAPOLEON CANNON .72 Cal, 13 1/4" bore showing only some light and some moderate oxidation. The steel barrel is about 15 1/4" overall and is a dull gunmetal gray with light surface oxidation across its top surfaces, a spot or two which is more moderate. The hardwood carriage rates very good with lightly flaking original varnish intact and some minor handling marks here or there. The balance of all the metal is finished bright and now has an overall light coating of oxidation, there are metal ammunition boxes affixed to the axles left and right of the cheeks. The gun includes the chained wheel stop and one rammer/cleaning brush is present. The barrel 15 unmarked but this clearly is one of the offerings from CVA, likely from the 70s. A nice example overall that would likely clean up rather well. (36519-641B) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection]

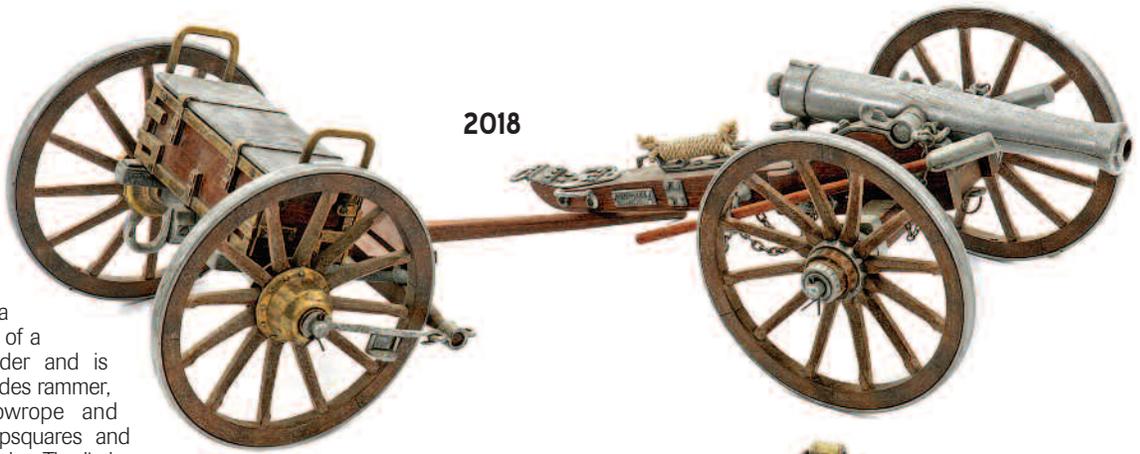

2015

2015. UNMARKED NAVAL STYLE BREECH-LOADING SIGNAL CANNON 8 Ga., 23" overall length barrel with a 21 1/8" bore showing some moderate oxidation. The barrel is heavy iron and has a nice muzzle flare, tapering its full-length from a heavy outer iron breech section. The rear-most of breech section is about 3" square with a vertically-sliding breech block. There is a spring-loaded striker fitted, there is no trip mechanism in place. The gun is mounted on a conical heavy brass base looking very much like a Naval mount. The brass is a dark tarnished ochre patina and has six drilled holes for attachment lags. The diameter of the base is 7 1/4" with an overall height of 7 3/4". The overall length when assembled with breech is 25 3/4". The cannon weighs 35 Lbs. (36935-49)

2016. UNMARKED BRASS SALUTE CANNON This is an all brass-constructed cannon on a field style carriage. The bore is about .36 cal about 7 1/2" deep and is likely vented for likely firecracker fuse, designed as a salute cannon only and not for projectile use. The barrel itself is 9 3/4" with a flared muzzle, trunnion reinforce and somewhat large cascabel at the breech ring. The single trail trace is roughly 12 1/2" overall with an overall length muzzle face to trace ring of 16 1/2". The brass is an overall slightly tarnished gold-enrod patina with a very bright hue. A very attractive looking cannon overall. (36852-4)
2017. HEAVY IRON DISPLAY CANNON This is an antique iron salute cannon. It consists of the cannon tube, heavy iron capsquares, split trace and two spoked iron wheels attached to a heavy iron axle. The bore is about 1 5/16" and is heavily eroded and about 18" overall length. The gun is vented and there is a touchhole present as well as the remnants of what may have been some type of a striker mechanism at the rear face of the breech and atop the trunnion reinforce; perhaps there was a nipple attached years ago for musket cap ignition. The barrel no longer pivots nor do the wheels rotate on the axle, but this could likely be rectified by someone with some time and talent to devote to the piece. It is currently painted black and is overall lightly and moderately pitted beneath the enamel. The wheels are 14" in diameter and six-spoked, currently the barrel and trace are held onto the wheels axle by gravity only. It would appear as though there was a stretcher along the rear most portion of the trace at some point, it is no longer present and a hardwood block holds the two-pieces together. The unit is very heavy and weighs about 185 Lbs, the overall length is 32 1/2" and width axle tip to axle tip is about 20 1/2". A number of the spokes show cracks on the wheels but they are stable and do not move. Still a very attractive and large piece for the gun room or den. (37008-2) [Extra Shipping Will Apply]

2018. SCALE MODEL NAPOLEON CANNON WITH LIMBER

This is an attractive model cannon made of die cast zinc and wood with molded plastic wheels. Model is a faithful reproduction of a Napoleon six-pounder and is quite detailed. Includes rammer, powder scope, towrope and chains and the capsquares and wedges are removable. The limber is similarly constructed and also very nice, the lid of the ammunition chest is hinged and operates. An attractive die cast zinc and wood set overall for bookshelf or desktop. (34299-83)

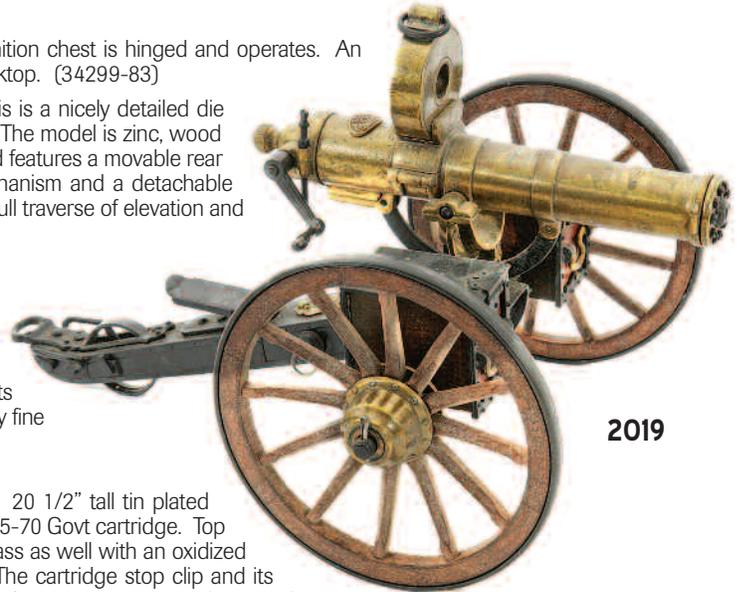

2018

2019. SCALE MODEL COLT MODEL 1883 GATLING GUN This is a nicely detailed die cast zinc model of a Colt 1883 Gatling gun on an iron carriage. The model is zinc, wood and with molded plastic wheels. The model is quite detailed and features a movable rear sight, cranking handle which turns and rotates the barrel mechanism and a detachable Accles feed drum. Additionally the gun will operate through its full traverse of elevation and depression. Very good plus to excellent overall. (34299-84)

2020. GATLING MODEL 1877 VERTICAL FEED MAGAZINE 20 1/2" tall tin plated sheet iron 40 rd. magazine with heavy brass feed throat for the 45-70 Govt cartridge. Top is heavy cast brass, soft-soldered to the body, the follower is brass as well with an ocher-colored thumb piece. The cartridge stop clip and its spring are intact and functional. Magazine has a minor dent or two at its top most section and a minor compression mid-body. Overall very fine with traces of original tin plate, primarily a dull gunmetal gray. (36519-659) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection]

2021. GATLING MODEL 1877 VERTICAL FEED MAGAZINE 20 1/2" tall tin plated sheet iron 40 rd. magazine with heavy brass feed throat for the 45-70 Govt cartridge. Top is heavy cast brass, soft-soldered to the body, the follower is brass as well with an oxidized thumb piece showing some rust and a green oxidized patina. The cartridge stop clip and its spring are intact and functional. Magazine has a couple minor dents, one most prominent on its left side halfway down, easily raised through the magazine follower slot opposite it. Overall fine with scant traces of original tin plate, primarily a dull gunmetal gray. (36519-659A) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection]

2021

2022

2023

2022. GATLING MODEL 1871 VERTICAL FEED MAGAZINE 15" curved magazine, second type with one-piece spring catch stop clip which retained cartridges until inserted into gun. Caliber is .50-70. Top is soldered-on tin-plated sheet iron, as is the body. Body is stiffened by three rolled-in ribs on each side. follower is heavy brass and the thumb tab is a tarnished ocher patina. Overall very fine, primarily a gunmetal gray with remnants of original tin, strongest on its left side. (36519-660) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection]

2023. GATLING MODEL 1871 VERTICAL FEED MAGAZINE A large 19" curved magazine, first type of 1871 with the detachable magazine cover, rather than the spring catch. The caliber is likely .43 Berdan or .43 Spanish, both of which fit the magazine well, the .45-70 being too short and the .50-70 being much too short. In 1868 the Russian's took delivery of .42 Russian (.43 Berdan) chambered Gatlings, in 1873 the Spanish Government in Cuba ordered guns in .43 Spanish (the Gatlings used in the U.S. Ordnance dept. "Fortress Monroe Trials" in 1873 were chambered for the .42 Russian cartridge). The early guns had this style of magazine, it's no stretch to assume they could have been made as early as 1868 and would have certainly still been around in 1873. No follower or magazine cover is present; the chain is still attached however. Overall light oxidation but good plus to very good. (36519-660A) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection]

2024. GATLING GUN CAVALRY CART YOKE The tall thin-armed sculpted style yoke seen typically on light cavalry carts and some tripod mounts. 1" center mounting hole in base with brass-trunnion seats for 1 1/4" dia. trunnions. The left capsquare catch shows an old repair to the ball-shaped knob, both catches are still fully functional. There are no markings discernible at all. Base diameter is 9 5/8", height from base flat to center of trunnions is 8 3/8" with the inside of the harp measuring 8 5/16" capsquare flat to capsquare flat. Overall about fine with about 90% of its original black paint lightly flaking. (36519-578) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection]

2025. GATLING GUN STUCK CASE REMOVER is an iron rod with split for end and round hanger loop handle. The rod measures 38 1/4" overall length and shows remnants of original black enamel but is primarily overall a light oxidized brown which should clean to a nice smooth patina. These are designed for 45-70 caliber barrels and are inserted from the muzzle and designed to remove a stuck or separated case that remains in the chamber. A very neat Gatling gun accessory, very nearly indispensable "back in the day". (1X6519) [Richard "Stretch" Kennedy Collection]

2026. WINCHESTER MODEL 1885 FOREARM This custom forearm rates very good plus to excellent as-refinished (or perhaps new-made) with its ebony forend tip intact. The forearm is for an octagon barreled rifle with an about 1" width across the flats. It has a Winchester-style tuning fork palm rest added at a later date, it is numbered "2144" in the interior barrel channel. The tuning fork is blued and rates excellent, its pivoting attaching hardware retains all its original nickel, both parts are likely modern. (37026-10A)

2027. WINCHESTER MODEL 1885 FOREARM This custom forearm rates very good plus to excellent as refinished (or perhaps new-made) with its ebony forend tip intact. The forearm will fit an octagon-barreled 1885 Winchester with 1 1/8" width, across the flats. The forearm has a nice color case-hardened palm rest base neatly installed on its belly. A quality-made forearm in a very nice state of condition. (37026-11A)

2028. BRITISH BROWN BESS SOCKET BAYONET BY KETLAND This is a nice British Brown Bess bayonet with 16" blade and 20 5/8" overall length. The blade has a flat face and is stamped "WK" at its root, we surmise William Ketland, and what appears to be "Broughton" or "Roughton", the first couple letters are lost due to light pitting. The socket is 4" in length and is a plum brown patina with an L-shaped mortise and reinforcing medial along the rearmost edge. The root of the blade has a number of vise or clamp marks that are very old. As mentioned the blade has a flat face with near full-length back flutes. The blade is an overall dull pewter gunmetal gray with light oxidation staining and near overall pinprick pitting, some spots may be closer to moderate. The blade comes in an antique leather frog with tight seam stitching and a brass rear frog-hook, dual-riveted. There is a tip chape which was painted yellow and the throat itself was painted yellow as well, the body is still overall supple with only light crackling. Really a very nice Brown Bess bayonet overall with some nice markings, further research may prove their true identity. (37082-11A)

2029. U.S. MODEL 1903 SPRINGFIELD ACTION A nice 1903 action serial #941520, overall condition is excellent retaining 98% original or arsenal deep black phosphate finish. Appears perhaps arsenal "re-parked" or blued, receiver left side has an index mark so it is likely it was barreled at one time. Bolt has bent handle, swept slightly rearward and is "R" and "3" marked. All milled bottom metal, trigger assembly is an excellent quality commercial, fully adjustable (likely Timney) offering (nice t. pull). The perfect platform for a top notch custom rifle or for a military 1903 re-store. (37023-22) [Mark Benenson Collection]

2030. REMINGTON HEPBURN FALLING BLOCK ACTION This is a nice in-the-white Remington Hepburn falling block action. It has been dressed and has pistolgrip-style bottom metal nicely curved. The hammer and trigger show some rough casting marks with a prominent seam on the rear of the trigger. The hammer is powered by a coil mainspring, rather than a flat style. While it does not appear to be an original Remington Hepburn action, it is still quality-made throughout, perhaps one of the many kits that are available on the market. (37022-167) [Mark Benenson Collection]

2031. GERMAN MAUSER SMALL RING 98 ACTION serial #67804 This is an essentially stripped German small ring Mauser action, likely from a Car. 98. The action and the bolt assembly are all in-the-white. The action has been neatly polished and its rear ring nicely machined into a sporting contour. The bolt assembly is polished bright as well and the handle has been very nicely low-forged and swept for scope clearance, the original safety is still intact but low scope safeties are plentiful. The bottom metal is a black enameled hinged-floorplate aluminum offering from Brownell's. The floorplate features a pronghorn antelope and oakleaf and acorn decoration, it rates very good with a couple flakes in the enamel. There is no magazine spring nor follower present, there is no trigger assembly present. The receiver rings have been nicely drilled and tapped for scope bases, there is a front one-piece steel Redfield base in place. The bolt stop/ejector is present, there is only one action screw. (36758-49)

2032. WINCHESTER PRE '64 MODEL 70 ACTIONS serial #224918 & 149327. Both receivers are completely stripped, the earlier still retaining the stripper clip cut in the bridge. They are both a dark mottled gray-blue patina, both with four drilled and tapped holes atop the receiver and two for receiver sight on the left side of the ring. There is a stripped aluminum triggerguard included which rates about very good with overall minor dings and scratches and a bolt assembly included numbered 395691, the shroud screw is missing. The handle and shroud are a dark gray-blue with the bolt body showing some light oxidation staining. (37023-21, 23)

2033. SAVAGE MODEL 99 LEVER ACTION serial #332003, This action appears complete and seems to function well. It is straight-gripped and retains the lever style safety catch rather than top-tang mounted. The surfaces are an overall dull gray and speckled oxidized brown patina with pewter undertones beneath. Dressing has just started to be done atop the action ring where draw filing marks are present. The bolt body is now a dull pewter with minor oxidation staining. The cartridge counter is brass and there is a top-of-action cocking indicator; the sear screw nut on the right side of the action has been replaced with a brass example. (37023-25)

2034. WINCHESTER MODEL 1885 HIGH WALL ACTIONS serial #124371, and NSN. These are both flat thick-sided actions, the serial numbered example showing strong traces of what appears to be original blue with overall flaking to brown also showing some light oxidation and perhaps the oddly scattered pinprick pit; this is more prevalent on the lower curved pistolgrip tang. The lever shows some strong restored blue finish as does the hammer, the breechblock shows some very nice pale original color case-hardening. The action appears mostly complete and mechanically functional, it is missing the extractor, hammer spring and trigger spring as well as one of the filler screws for the upper tang. All of the Winchester factory markings are still visible and the breechblock appears to be rimfire. The action missing the lower tang has been lightly dressed and is now in-the-white, showing evidence of also having some water damage, which has left light water spot oxidation over most of the action. Lever, breechblock and hammer all show later reblued finish. In addition to the lower tang, the extractor is missing, we do not know what other parts may not be present. Breechblock appears to be centerfire. (37023-20,24)
2035. LOT OF NORWEGIAN KRAG ACTIONS. These appear to Kongsberg-manufactured actions, one dated 1916 the other 1924, serial numbered 11854 and 26640. 26640 is for salvage of parts as there is a large crack from the magazine box to the receiver ring, this directly behind the ring proper. The complete magazine assembly and bolt assemblies are present as is the complete trigger assembly. There is no bottom metal nor barrel. The other action has a magazine gate (only), no magazine cover and the bolt is only partially present, missing its shroud and attendant parts, the striker and spring are present with a peep sight affixed to the rear of the striker. There is a sear but no trigger. Both actions are deep gray blue with some light oxidation, one bolt knob with fairly prominent oxidation. (37023-19A,B)
2036. KRAG-JORGENSEN MODEL 1896 BARRELED ACTION AND STOCK serial #62853, 22 3/8" shortened barrel with a very good plus bore which is mostly bright with sharp rifling showing some scattered light frosting. The barrel is an overall dull gray-blue patina showing scattered light oxidation and some moderate pitting on the underside which would've been beneath the wood line. The action is stripped and is a silvery speckled case-hardened patina with light brown oxidation staining. The muzzle has been fitted with a sporting banded front sight ramp which may be homemade, it supports a Marbles ivory bead, the rear shows a custom-made sight base which has a Marbles semi buckhorn sight affixed. The barreled action sits in a nice American walnut sporter stock from Herter's. The stock is Monte Carlo style with a semi-roller cheekpiece and features checkered panels front and rear and has plastic forend tip, gripcap and buttplate. It rates about very good with overall original Herter's varnish with minor dings and handling marks, the cheekpiece has been dressed down and is without finish. The only other parts included with the gun are a magazine cover plate, a trigger, the magazine cut off, an as-cast sear assembly and a striker assembly with extractor attached (there is no bolt body). Overall a pretty decent start to making an antique Krag sporting rifle. (37022-57) {ANTIQUÉ}
2037. SAVAGE MODEL 99 LEVER ACTION BARRELED ACTION serial #500962, 300 Savage, 24" barrel with a bright excellent bore. The barrel retains about 97% original blue while the action retains a similar amount of later rust blue, perhaps done by Griffin & Howe when they attached the side mount G & H base which is present (there is no ring set present). The lever retains excellent original color case-hardening. The gun appears to be complete and functional in every respect however there is no wood present nor are there any sights on the barrel. (37022-131)
2038. WINCHESTER MODEL 1885 HIGH WALL BARREL AND ACTION serial #64930, 30 U.S. (30-40 Krag), 30" round No. 3 weight barrel with a poor bore. The metal surfaces of the barrel are an overall dull gray and speckled brown oxidized patina with scattered minor dings, handling marks and some light pitting. The action is in a similar state of condition showing some moderate and heavy oxidation which will result in pitting once removed, this is confined primarily to the sides of the action and could be dressed down and removed without affecting the integrity of the frame. There is a centerfire breechblock included which shows some generous traces of original color case-hardening and the lower tang is fitted with double set triggers; there is an appropriate elongated lever which accommodates those triggers. There are no other parts present. Barrel and frame are not set-up tight and while this barrel is un-serial-numbered, a tag hanging on it indicated it went to this action. (37023-28)
2039. WINCHESTER MODEL 1885 HIGH WALL BARREL AND ACTION serial #99090, 30 U.S. (30-40 Krag), 30" No. 3 weight barrel with a fair bore. Barrel and action are primarily a dull gray-blue with scattered oxidation speckling, some light handling marks and a few spots of light pits. There is a Savage-style front sight and a Winchester semi buckhorn rear sight. The frame is primarily a dull pewter gray with brown oxidation staining and scattered light pitting, the tang and lever are similar. The straight grip walnut buttstock rates fair-good showing an old repair to a long crack left and right of tang (top and bottom as well); a cross-bolt repair has been made through the cheeks of the stock, there is now evident synthetic filler in that area. The forend fits the barrel very well and rates good with overall dings and handling marks and worn finish, its ebony tip insert is intact. The gun seems to function well mechanically and while the barrel is not serial numbered, a tag affixed to it numbered it to this receiver. The crescent buttplate does not fit precisely, there is quite a gap at its fit at the heel, showing the beginnings of two very small cracks at its leading front edge. It should be noted that currently barrel and action are disassembled from each other. (37022-50)
2040. WINCHESTER MODEL 1885 HIGH WALL BARREL AND ACTION serial #45196, 22 WCF, 26" octagon No. 1 weight barrel with a poor bore. The barrel is an overall oxidized brown patina with areas of light and moderate pitting. There is a simple Lyman front sight in place and a later homemade brass rear. The high wall frame, lower tang and breechblock all show an older nickel plate, the surfaces beneath lightly buffed with an electric buffing wheel. The serial number is extremely faint but close scrutiny has revealed the first and last two numbers, the two center numbers are this writer's opinion. The hammer, trigger and lever are a brown oxidized patina over an older reblue. The buttstock appears to be English walnut and is partially fitted and currently does not seat fully on the action. It is very nice quality, very Griffin & Howe-like. It features a rounded left side shadowline cheekpiece, nice comb flutes and a Niedner buttplate. The wood adjacent to the Niedner buttplate shows some oxidation staining leaching in. What is likely the original forend is in place, it rates fair-good with heavy added varnish and a couple-three minor cracks the ebony forend tip is intact. Barrel and frame are currently separated. An about very good project high wall overall. (37022-105) {ANTIQUÉ}
2041. SAVAGE MODEL 1899 LEVER ACTION RIFLE serial #279289, 30-30 Win, 20" takedown barrel (now permanently affixed) with a very good bore which shows frosting its full length. The metal surfaces retain about 90% original blue, the loss due primarily to even fading, most of the surface is now a darker gray-brown patina, with wear to pewter on the sharp edges and contact points. The straight gripped walnut buttstock is uncheckered and it does not fit precisely; it may be from a different rifle and certainly appears as though it will need final fitting. The length of pull to the 3/4" pebbled face pad is 13 3/4". The gun seems to operate well mechanically and has factory open sights with the tang drilled and tapped for an aperture base. There is no forend present. (37022-77) (200/400)

2042. CUSTOM WINCHESTER MODEL 1885 FALLING BLOCK RIFLE serial

#94259, (rebored to) 44 Magnum, 22" part octagon part round No. 3 weight barrel with a bright excellent bore. The barrel is an overall plum brown with light dings and handling marks and toning to pewter on the high edges. It shows remnants of a ".357 Magnum" stamping, this lightly dressed and over stamped with "44 (Mag)", according to Mr. Benenson's notes this work was done by Ward Koozer, the underside of the barrel is so-marked. The frame retains about 97% excellent quality rust blue with there still being some color case-hardening in the recesses of the breechblock. The custom lever has toned to a plum and flaky blue patina with the custom triggerguard retaining all its nice blue. The American walnut buttstock rates excellent as neatly, very carefully refinished and is likely original equipment to the rifle, its toeline shows a walnut plug where a standard Winchester-style sling swivel with base was inletted, the butt has a smooth shotgun style plate. The forend appears to be the rifle's original Winchester forend rating good with overall dings and handling marks and worn varnish, its ebony tip is intact. A separate triggerguard has been fitted to the lower tang and the lever has been very neatly converted to loosely Farquharson or Ruger No. 1-style with a down-swept rear lip, nicely metal checkered with a catch at its leading edge which fits neatly into a recess in the triggerguard. Additionally the arm has Winchester close-coupled double set triggers which work very well. The rifle is sighted with an ivory bead front sight which is adjustable for windage, a standard Lyman folding leaf rear sight and a nice Kings locking staff, tang-mounted aperture sight. The gun seems to function well mechanically however there is no rear screw through the tang sight and therefore the tangs, the front tang screw shows some slot damage, the balance of the screws are unmolested. Really a very nicely-converted rifle showing some real craftsmanship. To this writer the front end should be done i.e. the forearm professionally refinished and the barrel re-blackened. (37022-126) [Mark Benenson Collection] (400/600)

2043. COLT MODEL 1849 POCKET REVOLVER serial #157514, .31 cal. percussion, 5" octagon barrel with a dark oxidized bore. The metal surfaces on this five-shot pocket are an overall lightly cleaned gunmetal gray. There are remnants of light oxidation staining and light pinprick pitting near over all; some areas of the frame and recoil shield with common pitting. All of the numbers are matching including the wedge and the cylinder scene is perhaps 40% visible. The backstrap is a dull ocher patina as is the triggerguard, showing some strong trace tarnished silver remnants at its root. The smooth walnut one-piece grip rates about very good showing an older refinish with some added varnish, the leading edges slightly shy of the grip frame, it is numbered to the gun. The gun seems to function well mechanically. Overall a good too perhaps very good example with a very frontier-used appearance. (37005-1) {ANTIQUE} (400/600)

2044. RARE ROBIN HOOD AMMUNITION COMPANY CORRESPONDENCE

This is a nice framed piece of correspondence on Robin Hood Ammunition Company letterhead dated October 1911. Nicely framed and matted, the letterhead shows the Robin Hood Smokeless Powder trademark along its left upper edge with the "Robin Hood Ammunition," center and right, listing the principles at the upper right-hand corner. The correspondence is between a Mr. Ellsworth of Ipswich Mass reference shotshell pricing and a descriptive flyer of the products, the company also asking for the name of a local retailer that would perhaps handle their products for them. It is signed by ET Bradley, sales manager; he was also the secretary of the company. The letterhead itself is still vibrant and very clear while the type-written text below has faded somewhat with the years; Mr. Bradley's signature in ink pen is still very crisp. There is a small section of loss at the upper right corner of the correspondence, it is inconsequential. The view measures about 8" by 10 1/2" with the frame itself measuring 12 5/8" by 15 5/8" overall. The Robin Hood Powder Company changed their name to the Robin Hood Ammunition Company in 1906, in 1915 they were acquired by Remington UMC, they would cease all operation in 1919. An extremely rarely-encountered piece of correspondence still in very fine condition. (36679-63) (300/500)

2045. FINE U.S. CARTRIDGE COMPANY FRAMED SHOT-SHELL DISPLAY

This is a lovely original glass and tin display from the U.S. Cartridge Company. It consists of black back-painted glass with embossed foil backgrounds showing cartridges and shotshells, the "U.S. Cartridges And/The Black Shells" advertising logo and shot sizes No. 10 through No. 4 as well as six different types of powder utilized by the company: DuPont bulk powder, EC bulk powder, Dead Shot bulk powder, Ballistite dense powder, Infalible dense powder and finally, black powder. The depictions of the shot sizes are all embossed in tin and painted dark gray against a white background, the powder features actual samples of granulated powder adhered to the tin backing. This is framed in what is likely its original dark-stained cherry or maple frame which rates very good. The image itself shows five very small flaked areas on the backside of the glass. Overall this is a really fabulous depiction, very seldom-encountered, still in a very nice state of preservation. (36678-55) (600/800)

2046. WINCHESTER REPEATING ARMS COMPANY LITHOGRAPHED SHOT-SHELL BOARD This is a rather large 1960's-Vintage Winchester 1897 Double "W" Cartridge Board lithograph. These were produced by "e.h.y. enterprises inc." for Winchester on a limited basis and the margin is so-marked in the lower right corner. The lithograph rates about very good with most of the depiction bright, the left upper corner showing some light fading while the whole bottom margin shows some evidence of light water staining, a few spots which may be slightly more moderate. The view measures 33 1/2" x 49 1/2" with the outer frame measuring 37" by 53". Displayed on the lithograph are 161 large rifle cartridges; 39 pistol cartridges; 39 rimfire cartridges; 15 early large caliber bullets; 11 paper shotshells; 9 brass shotshell cases and 9 tins of primers and percussion caps; calibers run the gamut from .22 to .58. A nice representative example for den or gun room without the very costly five-figure price tag associated with actual cartridge boards. (36679-62) [Extra Shipping Will Apply]

2047. INTERESTING "STEAM-PUNK" DESK OR TABLE LAMP This is a large "fantasy" desktop or table lamp in a "steam punk" type of motif. It features a central "tank" with an upper collector onto which a large spoked gear is attached. This is then connected to a rear "driving gear" attached to one of the large rear wheels, there are front "steering" wheels with the connecting rods being made out of combination box-open ended wrenches. There is a chromed "smokestack" at the front of the entire contraption. The construction is of welded steel with the bulk of the parts being painted a copper-tone, the driving gear and bicycle chain painted silver. All of the parts are static and immovable. These sit atop a cast-brass grate or stovepipe ring which remains a tarnished goldenrod in color. This assemblage is screwed to a hardwood base which is suspended slightly above the table on four chromed carriage bolts. The lamp staff is painted green and has a small steel ivy leaf and vine motif encircling it, the lampshade is white linen. The overall condition is as-new, the lampshade showing one small stain. An interesting tabletop lamp overall nicely crafted by some home hobbyist, perhaps a machinist perhaps a "steam punk" aficionado. 2048. HARRY POPE TANG MOUNTED APERTURE SIGHT This is a quality all steel aperture sight with mounting screws. The sight itself retains perhaps 85% original blue with flaking or fading to pewter along the sharp edges and contact points, with some very sparsely scattered remnants of extremely light oxidation staining. The staff is spring-loaded and the elevation of the adjustable staff is regulated by two knurled locking wheels, with small drilled holes for spanner or small punch to be inserted to tightly secure the staff from movement (it is included). The aperture block is adjustable for windage and the aperture is included. As mentioned, the small wire nut-tightening "wrench" is in place on the windage block and is included with the sight (these are easily and very often lost). The base of the windage staff is numbered "five" as is the aperture block and the sliding windage piece. The front and rear of the sight base are normally nicely radiused, this base has had a tiny bit of metal ground off front and rear, from being mounted on a various arms over the years (if one wished they could be nicely re-radiused and the base blued, it is unobtrusive and certainly not necessary). The knurled pivot-tightening thumb piece on the base has had two edges neatly flattened, directly opposing one another, so that a shooter may use a spanner to securely tighten the staff in place rather than just thumb pressure. A very nice example overall of a very seldom-encountered Pope sight. (36106-563)

The policy, for $4735 each year insures the life of the Gustave A. Lehnert, gunsmith, of Louisville Kentucky for $1000, for a 20 year period. An interesting read, it shows Gustave was born in Prussia in January of 1849, he has never had the smallpox but he has been vaccinated. He had two brothers and three sisters, it would appear both brothers died as infants. He has never used alcoholic beverages or other stimulants nor is he engaged in the sale of such. Additionally there are two receipts for payment of premium on this policy, one dated November 20, 1881 the other dated November 11, 1880. The receipts are from the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company's agents in Louisville Kentucky, Cowen & Robinson. These papers were tucked in a ledger book which shows dates from 1883-1887 and while Lehnert's name does not appear anywhere in the book it is likely his, showing numerous entries for normal everyday household goods but also entries for barreled actions and machine tools, the only real firearms names mentioned are "AG Spalding Brothers" and "Pittsburgh firearms" as well as "E. E. Eaton". The stock of guns pistols and supplies and materials on hand was worth $8800. Tools, lathes, drills and reamers were worth $800. The very last page also shows payment to the Hanover Fire Insurance Company of New York for insurance on his tools, this for the year ending 1888. The life insurance policy is very readable and mostly bright with light foxing on one of the pages and a small tear along one of the folds with some mildew and darkening on the areas of the policy that would've been exposed to the air when it was folded. The ledger book shows a separating spine, some mildew, light foxing and an antique stain on the cover which has affected a number of the pages beneath. The iron has a muddled gray-brown patina with uniformly oxidized patina on the interior and underside of the brim. There are no provisions for mounting either a liner or chinstrap and the brim has a small punched hole for mounting on a wall. Covers "The Beginning of Guns" from early match locks through flinter's, the early pioneer days in this country through the development of cartridges and guns, precision shooting, some notable "Sharpshooters and Showoffs", guns for flying game and highly embellished arms. Overall otherwise excellent but for a large 5" compression on the cover adjacent to the spine, it has creased the cover and the front two pages only but has not affected the balance of the book nor its readability. No dust cover is present. An informative read overall. The "Complete Collectors and Traders Guide" Guns of the World © 1977 Petersen Publishing, Hans Tanner ed. 400 pages hardcover. An interesting and eclectic collection of articles covering such things as Kentucky rifles, Sharps Arms, commemoratives, Bowie knives, Colt Firearms, M-1 carbines, free pistols, Japanese arms, Winchester model 70s, Smith & Wessons, Swiss rifles, Moisin Nagants, military rifle markings, P38's and Lugers, Mausers, rifled field guns, paper cartridges, and many more. Mostly black and white with color plates at the center; the rear-most section is an interesting identification and value guide for arms of the world, organized alphabetically by nation. Overall very good showing minor abrasions along the upper and lower edges of the covers, soiling along the edges of the pages, a number pages showing the remnants of having been folded-over and a very sparsely scattered pen underlining or notation here and there. The dust cover itself rates very good to very good plus. Still an informative read and identification guide even in this day. (36512-8B)

Next is an empty .22 Automatic with a top that also states "Adapted to Winchester 1903 Automatic Rifle" and rates near very good with a separated right corner and remnants of an old tape repair. The third box is .22 Long with "Super Clean" in white within the center blue stripe which also contains the company logo to the left. Enclosed is one cartridge. These first three listed above include "Dominion Ammunition Division" as part of the company identification and all share the color scheme of yellow, blue and white. The last two exhibit nearly identical graphics as the cartridge image is to the far left with red used for Super Clean and the calibers: 22 Long Rifle and 22 Short and within a blue stripe resides the C-I-L oval logo. These two empty examples rate very good to near excellent with the LR showing tan staining on the rear panel. (76679-49AA)

3424. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a full 50 rd. size brick containing ten 50 rd. boxes of Canadian Industries Limited 22 Long Rifle. The outer box has the customary yellow blue and red graphics and measures approximately 6 1/2"x2 1/2"x2 1/4" with a top panel that includes a large image of the cartridge and below it is "Shooting is Fun with Super-Clean". Also included is the C-I-L logo and "22 Long Rifle/Greased". This box has a nice clean surface outside of some light dirt on the right end. Also noteworthy are the crisp edges and even a bold purple inspector's stamp on the bottom. The 50 rd. size boxes rate virtually as-new and feature the somewhat angular cartridge image at the top left and a yellow oval with blue "C-I-L" within, with "Standard Velocity" below it. The enclosed ammunition is excellent. This is a rare opportunity to obtain a full brick, particularly in this condition. (76679-49Z)

3425. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOX This is a full and excellent condition 50 rd. box by Canadian Industries. The box has an almost entirely yellow backdrop surface with a top panel that has a blue stripe that consists of "25 Long Stevens (image of cartridge) Smokeless" above a yellow stripe that consists of "Super-Clean" within a rectangle and to its right resides an extensive listing of arms that it has been adapted to. The stripe below it is the sole buff colored area on the box and it consists of blue text that reads "Rim Fire Cartridges". The side panels include the C-I-L oval logo and also indicate that it contains 65 gr. bullet. The box and enclosed ammunition are virtually blemish free but there is somewhat faded number written in what appears to be pencil on the bottom panel. (76679-49AB)

3426. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOX This is a full one-piece box from Canadian Industries with yellow blue and white print and a top section that reads "22 Short (image of cartridge) Smokeless Dry Lubricated Bullets/(company oval logo) Super-Clean"/ Made in Canada by/Canadian Industries Limited/Dominion Ammunition Division/ Montreal Canada". 3427. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of two one-piece 50 rd. size boxes for .25 Stevens beginning with a very good to near excellent condition example from Peters with yellow, blue, red; and white graphics with a blue backdrop to the top which includes "Rustless" within a red oval trademark logo and the "P" logo at the bottom right. Contained in the excellent condition tray are approximately 30 correct cartridges in excellent condition. The second box is in a lesser state of condition but is by United States Cartridge Co., this one of the dark blue background with mainly orange logos. The top section reads within the logo "50 .25 Calibre/Stevens/Rim Fire/United States Cartridge Co./New York N.Y. U.S.A.", with the lower portion displaying the Lesmok Logo. This example is missing both end flaps and the main body has tearing occurring at the upper corners and the side panels have residue from applied labels or tape. The correct empty tray has a significant puncture to a side panel. Overall the rating of this box is about good to good plus. (76679-49AD)

3428. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of two 50 rd. size boxes from Dominion. First is a two-piece with a red wraparound label with white text that has a top portion that reads "32 Long/Adapted to/ The Various Arms of this Caliber/ Manufactured by the/Dominion Cartridge Co. Also of interest is a sticker attached to the bottom with a matching red center and a border reading "Beauvais Hardware Co. Montreal". The label and buff colored box featuring thumb cutouts rate excellent and the enclosed ammunition amounting to approximately 20 correct rds. rates very good with some light oxidation occurring to the lead. The second box is a one-piece containing about 35 correct and excellent rds. of what is depicted on the top panel in blue and yellow sections as 25 Short Stevens, Super Clean with the "Adapted to" message and the company name section including both Canadian Industries Limited and Dominion Ammunition Division. The box rates about very good with tape residue, mild corner wear and ink markings on the bottom. (76679-49AE)

3429. LOT OF COLLECTOR AMMUNITION This is a pair of 50 rd. size boxes from the United States Cartridge Co. with the Lowell, Mass. address and blue backgrounds and orange oval logos. First is a one-piece with a top logo that reads "50 .22 Calibre/Winchester/Rim Fire/(company name and address)" and front and rear including "Winchester/Lesmok Rim Fire". The left end flap is separated but present and the right is missing and has been replaced with a strip of tape that extends well onto the front rear and bottom. The box shows scattered edge scuffing and the tray contains about 45 correct and excellent cartridges. The second one is a full two-piece with a top logo that includes "50 .22 Calibre/Long Rifle/Rim Fire" and side and rear panels read "22 NRA Long Rifle Lesmok". The top label remains about 70% intact with loss at the lower portion and the lower right is peeling back up to the "22" of the logo. The side wraparound label is fully present with one corner peeling back a bit. The edges remain crisp and the graphics are still bold as are the inspector stamps on the bottom. Enclosed are two company-issued red caution slips, a U.S. Shot-Shells chart and very good ammunition with some oxidation on tips. (76679-49AF)

3430. COLLECTOR AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of three empty boxes by the United States Cartridge Co. The first one is the one-piece variation with the slide out tray and faded orange labels with a top section that includes in black, the company shield logo at the center with "Lowell Mass." below it and on the sides in vertically arranged text and what appears to be faded red "50 Rim Fire Cartridges" and "Calibre 22 Short". The front panel reads "50/target Cartridges." and the sides "22 Short." and about 90% of it remains. The box is fully intact with areas of ingrained dirt and light edge wear and is an impressive survivor overall. The last two have the grayish blue labels with black print including top sections that feature the circular "U.S." logo at the upper left with one reading "Fifty-Calibre .32-Short/Metallic Cartridges/Rim Fire" and the other "50 Cal. .22/Cartridges/Long Rifle/Rim Fire and each includes the Lowell address. The .32 short rates about good to very good with the left flap separated but present and the box shows evidence of having made contact with some liquid as some mold is present mainly on the bottom and about 40% of the blue is no longer present. The tray has torn corners and liquid stains. The .22 box is in much better condition and rates near excellent with sharp edges and text, the labels fully intact with the front still sealed and the top having faded nicely to allow for a blue border and buff interior. (76679-49AG)

F./Black Powder/Metallic Cartridges/Made by the/United States Cartridge Co., Lowell, Mass.". The side label has identical front and rear sections that include "Target Cartridges" and in addition the sides feature "Black Powder". Overall the black print is bold as are the blue side label and the bottom purple stamp. Also noteworthy are the crisp edges and the still sealed front. The ammunition shows oxidized tips with some powder having transferred to the cases. A very solid and full collectible overall. (76679-49AH)

Each of the side panels reads ".22 Blank" and the back has a large circle and within it is "U.S." with three dots at the mid points of the letters. The box has only light edge wear and a couple of dirt spots. The lid has separated but is present and the box is nearly full of correct, near excellent rounds. The second box is empty and a more recent version as it has the blue backdrop to the orange, white and blue graphics including a top panel featuring the oval logo with the customary US at the left and in this instance 32 to the right. Additionally, the logo contains "50 .32/Short/Blank/Cartridges/Made By/United States Cartridge Co./Lowell, Mass." Below it is an image of the blank and each of the identical sides has the logo with "U.S. Short Blanks Rimfire 32" and the bottom is plain blue. 3433. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of three empty two-piece boxes by American Metallic Cartridge Company. Each has top labels exhibiting the eagle scene as its focal point and the So. Coventry Conn. address info. at the bottom, with the first one also including within the ribbon border "50 Special Target Cartridges Swaged Bullets 32-100 Cal. Short". The dark orange side label has a front that reads "Target Cartridges.", the rear: "Double Waterproof," and the sides: "32 Short". The box shows a split top corner, foxing, wear and glue repairs to two sides of the bottom for a near very good rating. The second box rates excellent with a clean top section that includes "50 Shot Cartridges" at the top and "22 Long R.F." on either side, the left panel also adds "Chilled Shot". All other side panels are a plain brown. The third box has a similar layout, though it is of square configuration but features the plain brown side panels with the exception of the left, which reads "25 Shot Cartridges/32 Long R.F./Pat. Sept 9th 1879". The mottled tan one-piece label continues to the top that includes an upper section that reads "25 Shot Cartridges". 3434

3435. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of three 50 rd. one-piece plain buff colored boxes with strong black print and from different manufacturers of .32 blanks. The first of the square shaped boxes is by U.S. Cartridge Co. and includes the Lowell address on the front and the U.S. circular logo on each panel. The box apparently has come into contact with some liquid, causing a rough and wrinkled texture mainly on two sides and the back. The fully intact box also shows some dark spotting and is nearly full of correct rds. with verdigris forming on some. The second one is an empty UMC and has a somewhat darker shade, particularly on the front, which exhibits the "U" head stamp logo above the identification and address. The back reads "Bevel Crimped Blanks/Extra Loud Report." and all other panels have the U.M.C. logo above ".32 Blanks, Rim Fire". This example is missing the top right insert flap and the top is separated but present. The last one is Winchester and exhibits the best condition with the only significant blemish being a scuff on the right side panel. The front includes the trademark circular H logo just above "Star Crimp/Blank Cartridges/Extra Loud Report.". The back has "Winchester" in large font and the sides a variety of callouts. The box is virtually full of near excellent correct rds. (76679-49AL)

3436. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE BOXES This is a lot of three one-piece 50 rd. size buff colored boxes of Winchester blanks with a first one for .32 Short that opens to reveal an empty box with an inner flap marked "No. 1763-K. D." This version has mainly black text but there is red used for the company name on the front and left panels and the big bold W top and bottom. There is scattered grime evident and a bottom side flap is missing and its main flap is separated but present bringing the condition rating to about near very good. The second one rates about excellent however, a .32 Short with all black text and the H trademark logo on the front and also includes "Star Crimp Blank Cartridges Extra Loud Report". This is an apparently full box with crisp edges and only a couple of minor spots. The third also rates excellent but is considerably smaller as it is .22 blanks. The box features only red print with a front that includes the H logo, identification and company name and address. The box appears to have the entire 50 rds. that rate excellent as well. (76679-49AM)

3437. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of three full 100 rd. size one-piece boxes from different manufacturers of B.B. caps beginning with a buff colored example by Western that features red and blue print and a front panel that reads "100/Western/Bulletbreach Caps/Lubaloy/Smokeless Powder/Non Corrosive Priming" above the company name and address. Stayless/for 22 Caliber Rim Fire Rifles" and the side flaps include the code "W 22 BB". The third one is Remington UMC with the Kleanbore dog bone style logo and the code "R2" evident on the lower right front of the green box with plain tan bottom. All three boxes are in tremendous condition, virtually as new and have probably never been opened prior to this inspection which reveals excellent B.B. caps throughout. (76679-49AN)

3438. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of four 100 rd. size boxes for caps with the first three by UMC and the fourth of the Remington UMC period. The faded orange label includes "100 .22 Cal./B.B. Caps/Swaged Ball", the bottom label has separated but is present and the box houses about 60 very good correct rds. The others measure 2 1/2"x2 1/2"x1/2" with the first one having the dark marble but with the fully intact green top label declaring this as "100 .22 Cal./C.B. Caps/Conical Bullets". The side label is a brighter green and about 85% intact and the bottom label is also completely present. The box shows mild edge wear and foxing. The next one rates about good plus overall as the lid is mis-shapen and stiff with the beginning of a split occurring, the bottom much better with good color to the wallpaper-style cover. The top label states that this is .22 Cal. B.B. Gov't Cartridges. The last one features the Kleanbore dog bone style logo below "C.B. Caps" in large white print. The box rates very good to excellent with staining mainly at the bottom and is currently about 70% full of correct rds. (76679-49AP)

Portions of the black are fading but all are legible. The front of the matching orange seal is the guarantee, the left side has simply "22", the back: "Made Expressly for Target and Gallery shooting.". The labels are affixed to the diagonal pattern plaid covering, the bottom panel is plain buff and clean. There is scattered mild edge wear and some splitting to the side label but this remains a very collectible specimen. (76679-49AQ)

3440. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of three UMC 50 rd. two-piece boxes for .22 LR with the dark marble style body with rounded corners. The matching color side label is 95% intact and each side has ".22 Long" in large font and the box shows mild edge wear. Enclosed are about 20 cartridges with white oxidation and no discernable head stamps. The other two boxes are the more common rectangular configuration with the first one having the same shade orange labels as the one described above. This box like the one above has no image of the cartridge on the label. It is all text, arranged in horizontal lines with the largest reading ".22 Long Cartridges.". The front is the warranty, the sides each read ".22 Long", the back plain. This has light edge wear and the back portion of the label has a small missing section. Enclosed are about 25 rds. with U head stamps. The last box is empty and the top label features the image of the cartridge at the center and to its left is the U red dot logo and to its right is "40 gr. Bullet". Above these are the identification and below is the company name and address in the slightly curved layout. Bullet/(company name and address)". The label is 90% intact with loss at lower right corner. Nearly all of the side label remains with loss at the seams. The plaid under layer shows mild to moderate edge wear and the bottom label though fully intact has scuffing that has obliterated some text. The enclosed correct full 50 rds. rate near excellent with clean tips. The second box is a one-piece green box with the Kleanbore dog bone style logo at the center and at the top in large white text is ".45 Automatic Colt" and the end caps clarify that it is metal cased. The box shows mild wear with weakened and slightly split corners, a missing right inner end flap and a scuff at the lower top. The ammunition shows oxidized tips. The other four boxes are one-piece beginning with a Peters containing approximately 49 rds. of excellent and correct High Velocity Filmkote HP as depicted on the top of this No. 2284 box featuring silver, black and white graphics. The last one also includes an empty tray, this one being by Canadian Industries Limited, a buff colored box with blue and red graphics featuring an angular image of the cartridge, "Super-Clean" and "Standard Velocity". Three corners of the left side of this box are split and there are areas of ingrained dirt, the bottom also including a penciled in note. The original ammunition rates near very good with oxidized tips. A nice find with all 50 rds. (76679-49BC)

3450. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOX This is a two-piece box with rare purple labels including a top one that is fully intact and reads "50 Winchester 50/ (trademark statement)/.44 Winchester Smokeless Soft Point/Center Fire Cartridges (image of cartridge with enclosed ID) 200 gr. Soft Point Bullets/For Winchester Model 1873 and 1892 and other Rifles and Revolvers" above the customary company name and location. The side label is 99% intact and exhibits a front that reads ".44 Winchester Smokeless/Soft Point Cartridges/Models 1873 and 1892/Winchester Make". The sides have identical text and are quite redundant to the front with ".44 Winchester/Smokeless/Soft Point/Winchester Make". The back consists of a seven line guarantee statement and the code 705 4-14. The box remains sealed at the back panel and rates about very good or perhaps slightly less as there are splits at the rear lid corners and bottom right rear. Also evident is mild edge wear and a few letters of the otherwise strong black print have worn away. In addition the top label exhibits light foxing and a slightly inconsistent faded appearance. The enclosed 48 rds. are correct and very good with only a light amount of white on the tips and darkening to the cases. An uncommon box that has held up quite well. (76679-49BB)
3451. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of two Winchester two-piece boxes beginning with a .32 short that bears the turquoise-like green top label including a top line that features the image of the cartridge with the word Short within it and on its left is "50", to its right "No. 32". Below that is "Rifle Cartridges" and below that in large font are the company name and location with the H and Stetsons logos in their customary positions. The label is fully intact with mild foxing and some soiling. There is a somewhat concave profile and the box has nice edges with only light wear. The deep orange colored side label is 98% intact and reads "32 Short. R.F.", the right exhibits an abbreviated version: "32 Sht. R. F." and a faded lid section, the lower left, faded as well shows a black spot. The rear is the guarantee statement and enclosed are about 30 very good and correct rds. The second box has a fully intact lemon yellow top label with identification occurring on the two upper lines in the form of "100 (cartridge image including "Short") No. 22/Metallic Cartridges" with the usual company name, location and logos for this period in their appropriate positions. This label, and the box in general exhibit much dark spotting likely from grime and contact with a small amount of liquid. The green side label is the version with front, sides and rear that read "No. 22 Short" and is about 70% intact. This example rates about near very good with a glue repaired lid that has begun to separate once again at the back right, still a nice find with the yellow label and an enclosed correct cartridge. (76679-49BD)
3452. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of two empty two-piece Winchester boxes. The first one has a light blue top label that reads "50 No. 30" with a plain image of the cartridge at the center and a second line with "Metallic Cartridges". This resides over the company name, location and logos. All text is strong with some of the blue label having worn to reveal the buff colored panel. Interestingly the original side label is the bright green color and bears a front exhibiting a somewhat obliterated "No. 30", and all other sides plain green, the back still mostly sealed. This is a very good overall example with no extreme blemishes, just the typical fading and ingrained dirt from the years. The second box exhibits a fully intact olive green top label with different and plainer text without the sharp edged lettering. It consists of a top line of "50 (picture of cartridge with ".32 Short" along case) .32 Caliber./Rifle Cartridges" above the manufacturer's information and this one with a smaller H within the trademark logo. The orange side label consists of a still sealed front with the guarantee statement, a back with ".32 Short R. F." and sides with ".32 Sh't. R. F./Winchester Make". The bottom panel bears a still affixed and nearly fully legible guarantee label with red print. Another very good and desirable example with very light edge wear and a somewhat overall dark appearance. (76679-49BD)
3453. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of two empty two-piece Winchester boxes for .32. The first one has a lightly faded olive green top label with the upper section declaring this as "50 .32 Caliber." with the picture of the cartridge displayed between the quantity and the caliber with ".32 Long" on the case, and "Rifle Cartridges" below it. The lower portion consists of company name, location and trademark logos. A small portion of the upper left is torn off and a smaller one at the right is peeling back and all text is strong and legible. The orange side label has held up well, as it is virtually fully intact and not all that faded, the front panel still sealed and reading "Process of Lubricating Pat'd Sept. 12, 1882" above the company name in script. The back contains the guarantee statement and each side: ".32 Long. R. F./Winchester/Make. Overall the box is very good with light edge wear and some scattered spotting with panels that have retained their shape and structure nicely. The second box is in a lesser state of condition, but should be considered desirable none the less as this one is coded 234 with the 7-7 date as depicted on the bottom of the green top label that also reads "50 Cartridges (in a curved layout) .32 Caliber./for/Winchester .32 Cal. Rifles./Center Fire. (cartridge picture with cal. depicted within it) Solid Head (in straight line)" over the trademark info and the name and location taking up the lower portion. The front of the buff colored side label is the guarantee statement and below it the code 622 and 7-7, the back, "Winchester Make" with another image of the cartridge. The sides include the big bold red W and "Model 1873 and 1892. The box has a dark overall appearance, mainly from ingrained dirt, the lid has split corners and an excellent pink interior label coded 1732 and 10-6. (76679-49BE)
3454. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOX This is a factory sealed two-piece Winchester box with a virtually fully intact bright green top label with an upper line consisting of "50 (image of cartridge including "Long") No. 38/Metallic Cartridges". Below it are the logos displayed at the sides of the company name and location. The text is bold and the label has scattered small scuffs and foxing. The side label is now a salmon-like shade of orange, almost pink in areas with a front section that is splitting but not enough to keep this as being classified as sealed and the front, rear and right side each read "38 Long. R. F.", the left is plain. Overall the box displays little edge wear and small dark spots of dirt particularly at the bottom. A nice and collectible box from the famous maker that has never been opened. (76679-49BF)

3455. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a group of three 50 rd. size, two-piece .22 boxes by Winchester beginning with a factory sealed example with a fully intact and faded olive green top label that has "50" at each upper corner along with "Winchester" between them and the small font trademark info below it. The center portion begins with the H logo and includes the cartridge image including ".22 Long Rifle" and then "Rim Fire". Below that is "Lesmok Rifle Cartridges". The yellow side label, also fully intact bears a front with the guarantee statement above the codes 143 and 8-20. Also noteworthy is the remnant of a small strip of tape, perhaps a surcharge label. The sides include the big bold W and the back adds that these are "Target Cartridges". Also evident are crisp edges and scattered light dark spots. The second box shares some identical characteristics as it is a full box of original cartridges, these however being .22 Short, a faded olive green top and a yellow side label. This example has been opened and reveals very good ammunition. The top label has identical layout with the exception of the right center having the Stetson patent info rather than "Rim Fire". The side label is coded 141 and 9-14 and the box shows mild wear and an overall brownish patina. The last box is empty with the code 15 at the lower right and 10-8 lower left of the green top label declaring this as .22 Short. This is the version with "Smokeless" presented in red in a diagonal layout over "Rifle Cartridges". This has virtually entirely intact labels, mild wear and a dark overall appearance with spots of grime. A nice trio of examples for the Winchester or .22 box collector. (76679-49BG)

3456. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a group of three 50 rd. size, two-piece .22 boxes by Western, all of which are for .22 Short and are buff colored with thumb cutouts with the first two being factory sealed with wraparound labels. The first one has extremely bright colors including a red border of a green top section that has the diamond logo as its center focal point. This WT-24 code box also exhibits the image of the cartridge over a big red 22 on the right side panel, the left somewhat redundant to the top as it also includes the diamond and "Lesmok Powder". The box exhibits scattered scuffs to the otherwise outstanding condition. The other sealed collectible has a more faded overall label, this one green with a blue border and declaring that it is "Gallery Special". This is a clean box with scattered wear marks and nice edges. The last box is empty with a split to the lid just above the front thumb cutout, with a corresponding area at the back stamped "B A 13". This is the mainly blue and yellow version with the large company name logo in red and strewn across the blue upper front. The lower section includes ".22 Short/Lubaloy Coated Bullet. The side and bottom labels are also intact and the bottom compartment is somewhat mis-shapen from handling, bringing this box to a rating of near very good. A diversified and desirable grouping including some top rate condition. (76679-49BH)
3457. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a group of five .22 boxes consisting of two by Winchester and three identified by the Western logo. First is an empty two-piece Winchester with thumb cutouts and an olive green upper and yellow side portions to the fully intact wraparound label indicating that this is .22 Long Rifle Lesmok Target Cartridges. This is a near excellent condition example with nice edges and light wear including a clean bottom with label. The other Winchester is coded K 2208 R, representative of the one-piece yellow, blue and red graphics for Super Speed Long Rifle Staynless Kopperklad. This one has the tray with wear essentially at the edges only. The first of the Westerns is a two-piece with a wraparound label featuring deep green, red and black graphics with the diamond logo at the center of the top section which, like the sides, makes it clear that the contents are .22 Short, of which about 30 correct and very good cartridges are enclosed. This box shows little soiling or wear but has the residue of a removed strip of tape once used to reinforce the lid which shows a separation of the left flap. Very good to excellent with bold green color. The last two are empty one-piece beginning with a near excellent K1222R coded example indicative of .22LR 40 gr. lead lubricated bullet with sharp edges and color, a small scuff/tear to the right flap and the original tray. The last one is about an increment down condition wise, this being the yellow XP22LR code for Xpert with the big red X top center and the front panel identifying it as 40 gr. lead Special Lubricant. The tray is included and is mostly clean overall with a scuff and peeling to the top left. This one has the Winchester New Haven address in addition to the Western East Alton. An interesting grouping for those interested in the two companies. (76679-49BI)
3458. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of two empty two-piece picture boxes by UMC for .32 cal. short with the bright orange labels with the pistol images on the top and the plaid surface design. The first one has a top line that reads "Fifty No.2 or 32-100 Short" and is missing the right lid panel. This is the version with the front panel that reads "Warranted to fit and guaranteed superior to any in the market" with this example showing some obscured text at the separation. It shows mild edge wear but still sound and crisp overall. The second, which is slightly smaller reads "Fifty .32 Calibre. Short/Pistol Cartridges./No. 2/With/Swaged Bullets" with the guarantee on the back panel of the seal label which is about 60% intact and exhibits glue repairs, splits, wear and a scuff to the lower right of the top label causing it to peel back. An opportunity to acquire a couple of uncommon boxes. (76679-49BJ)
3459. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of two UMC two-piece picture boxes with the plaid design beginning with a .22 box with a fully intact faded olive green top label that reads "100 .22 Calibre./No. 1/Cartridges./With Swaged Bullets." and features the revolver image on the right just below the logo. The virtually fully intact orange sealing label has a front with the guarantee and a rear panel that reads "Made Expressly for Target and Gallery shooting". The left side reads ".22 Short" and the right is plain. The lid has splits at the front corners, the top label shows some foxing and the edges showing light wear bringing the rating to about very good. Enclosed within is about 80% of the lid to a similar .22 picture box with a bright green label. The second box has a deeper olive green and fully intact top label that has an upper section with "50" at the left corner and the right has ".30 Calibre.". Additionally there is "Cartridges/for XXX/Standard Revolver (in large font)/And Other Pistols Of This Calibre." All of this is accented by a large image of the revolver. The side label in this version is blue with the warranty statement on the back and the balance plain. About 80% of the label is intact, the glue repaired lid has two splits on the left and the box has an uneven profile with average wear and foxing. Enclosed are about 30 correct cartridges with mild oxidation and tarnish. A very collectible pair of picture boxes overall. (76679-49BK)
3460. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of two 50 rd. size picture boxes with the rounded corners by UMC including a mismatched one with the combination Remington name and red dot logo on the left side of its bright green and fully present top label with a top line that reads "44 Winchester". To the left of the logo is the image of the cartridge with "UMC/44 Winchester" and to its right is "200 grs. Bullet", with the combination name in curved layout below it. The empty bottom section is a mismatch with a similar green label and picture of the rifle on the front and the red dot logos on the sides. The back is the warranty for both top and bottom which has a 371 code. The bottom 4-H label is present and the compartments each rate about very good. The second box is all matching and has a fully intact light green top label that exhibits the old UMC logo at each upper corner and between them is "Fifty Cartridges./38 Cal. Winchester.". The center consists of a large image of the cartridge and within it is "38. C. F. W." and it lies between "Solid" and "Head." and above "Central Fire Reloading.". The UMC name and location takes up the bottom in straight horizontal layout. The side sealing label is nearly fully intact with some peeling evident. It has a front section consisting of the guarantee, a back with the picture of the rifle and sides that have somewhat obscured: ".38 Cal. C.F. Winchester Solid Head". The lid has glue reinforcements at each corner and a very good purple stamp on the interior that reads "In Reloading these Shells, Use U.M.C. no. 1 Copper Primer.". The box overall is very good with light wear and spots of grime. Enclosed are five cartridges and about 44 fired cases. (76679-49BL)
3461. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of three boxes of Remington UMC Kleanbore in one-piece green boxes with white and red graphics and the dog bone style logos at the centers of the tops. First is a full 50 rd. of .41 Short Rim Fire coded R318, with separated but present end flaps, light edge wear and about very good cartridges with oxidized tips and bright cases. The second box, coded R188XK is a 20 rd. size that is in better condition with brighter graphics and less wear. It currently houses 17 correct rds. of .32 Winchester Special, 165 gr., Mushroom Bullet and three of Western. The last box is a 50 rd. size for .32 S.&W., 88 gr. lead bullet currently containing about 25 excellent cartridges. The R167 coded box rates about good plus with a missing right flap, scuffs and dark soiling over a large portion of the top surface and extending to the other panels. The tray is beginning to tear from handling. This is an efficient manner to acquire a variety of calibers from the famous maker. (76679-49BR)

3458

3462. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of two empty UMC two-piece boxes with green top labels with black print including one that reads "50 .42 Cal., No.64/Rim-Fire Cartridges". The bottom guarantee label is fully intact with some shelf wear evident and the box has overall crisp edges with areas of grime. Both top and bottom show glue repairs. The second box has a top label with a small section missing from the lower left and text that reads "50 44 Cal., Short/Rim-Fire Cartridges" with the balance in the same configuration as described above. This example has the plaid covering with extensive tape repair over it and a lid that is split across the left side and extending to the front. Overall it rates good to very good with liquid stains, mild wear causing loss of the plaid and a fully intact bottom label. A pair of desirable vintage models. (76679-49BM)

3462

3463. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of two boxes by UMC with two-piece construction with the rounded corners and plaid wallpaper cover. The left panel has a penciled in note. The bottom retains the guarantee label and has a penciled in note. The third box is considerably smaller, as the top brown label reads "50/Blank/Cartridges/.30 Calibre" and includes the UMC info below it. Also included is a retailer's label on the bottom of this example which retains about 50% of its black outer layer and a sample round. The box is structurally sound with mild wear and a small ID label with a handwritten number affixed to one bottom panel. Overall a trio of rare vintage UMC collectibles. (76679-49BP)

The remaining four boxes are one-piece with the first one being a nearly full maroon example with buff colored text that reads ".22 Short R.F. Lesmok" over the Remington UMC dot logo, cartridge image and trademark statement. The bottom includes both the Remington and UMC names and this 53-S code box rates very good with a dark grime spot on the top and is nearly full with oxidized cartridges. The last three are Remington Kleanbore Hi-Speed LR with the first one full of excellent HP and coded R23 with an unglued front panel to this otherwise excellent mainly green box. The next one consists of the same green, red and white design with this one being empty and coded R21. The last one is an empty code 1552 which has a mainly red backdrop to green and white graphics. The front panel includes the cartridge image at the top, an expansive middle section that includes the logo and "One Hundred Cartridges". The lower section of this RF-37 coded box reads "22 Long Rifle Greased". The enclosed tray contains eight excellent correct cartridges. The box shows a little dark spotting on top, a slight tear and average wear and fading. This one shows mild edge wear and includes one sample cartridge. The last three are empty beginning with a 22 Short Mushroom that includes blue with the red and white scheme and the cartridge displayed on the top left. The last two are .22 LR, rating near excellent with red and yellow graphics only, with the exception of the mushroom box coded RF 24 which announces that, in blue, at the bottom right panels. The first of these one-piece 50 rd. size boxes is full and rates excellent with virtually no blemishes or wear and uses maroon, yellow and white graphics to announce that it is 22 Long Rifle Lesmok Powder Super-Accurate and that Dominion is included in the company info. The ammunition is mainly clean with tarnish in spots. The last three are Whiz-Bang beginning with an excellent condition 22 LR High Velocity, full with excellent condition cartridges. This example has the RF-33 coded end flap and the red, yellow, blue and white graphics include the angular cartridge image at the top left, a middle section with the oval C-I-L logo and a bottom panel that includes "1954" as part of the company information. The next one is also full with clean ammunition that matches the box condition as it shows only very light edge wear. The TT-60 coded box is a rather plain off white and navy blue scheme with "22 Long Rifle Shot" serving as identification at the upper section of the top panel. The last one in this lot would rate excellent were it not for an area mainly on the top of some coating, possibly a factory QC issue of excess aqueous coating. This RF-11 coded box features the top opening access, red, yellow and white graphics announcing this as 22 Short high velocity and with an image of the cartridge in a vertical stance. A nice variety with some top notch condition for the .22 or CIL collector. (76679-49BV)
3470. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a full, excellent condition, brick size box of Canuck 22 LR, standard velocity, greased rim fire cartridges. The outer box and its inner smaller counterparts share identical yellow, dark blue and white color schemes and include the cartridge picture to the far right and the C-I-L oval logos on the top and side panels. A nice change from the usual individual and much more common 50 rd. collectible. (76679-49BW)
3471. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of three 50 rd. one-piece .22 boxes by American Cartridge Co. including the first two which indicate manufacture at the Kansas City location. The first of these with black and white graphics set to a red backdrop is an empty example with A 22-1-S C coded end flaps that also include ".22 Short/Smokeless/Non-Corrosive/Copper Coated". The top panel includes "American Eagle" in large font above the copyright image of the bird below it. The front and rear panels consist of the company name and "Kansas City, U. S. A.", the bottom, a guarantee statement. The box rates near excellent with bold color, a partially separating right flap and an inner tray with a separated end flap. The next one exhibits a somewhat faded red area of the top panel which also includes a large "S" at the far left as part of "Superior Cartridges" and "Fast Flight" along with a small American Eagle copyright logo of the image of the eagle and the company name and address below. The end panels inform that this is .22 Long non-fouling. The box is clean and structurally excellent, likely benefitting from the wood block within the tray which also houses nine correct and excellent cartridges with clean lead tips. The last box has a tray with 49 excellent and correct cartridges with the copper tips but with the same identification as the one described above. This is the yellow box with black print that mimics the design pattern as the one listed above but includes the Minneapolis address and the white warning sticker applied to the lower portion of the top panel. The guarantee statement, as is the case with the other two in this lot makes up the bottom panel. This example rates excellent with sharp edges and bold color. (76679-49BX)
3472. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of four, one-piece .22 boxes by Sears, Roebuck and Co. beginning with one with code No. 302, a gray box with maroon and white graphics informing us that this is .22 LR Sta-Klean, Lead Lubricated, Xtra-Range, of which four near excellent cartridges with the correct XR head stamps are enclosed in the fully intact tray. This version has the warning as the top panel and the large Sta-Klean logo as the focal points of the front and back. This example is missing the left end flap, shows mild edge wear overall and some fading and peeling. The next three boxes are full 50 rd. and in excellent condition. The first one features a mainly orange surface with blue and white graphics proclaiming this as .22 Short Sta-Klean Kopper Kote with the top panel's lower portion exhibiting the company name and below it, the slogan "The World's Largest Store". The next one has the same design and color pattern but this one opens to reveal a right end flap with the code 90-CSR and a tray full of .22 LR Kopper Kote with some cartridges showing light verdigris. The last one has a mainly blue background to orange and white graphics that includes a wraparound stripe on the left and a top section indicating that this is 22 Short. Also included is the Sta-Klean logo and end flaps with "Lead Lubricated/No.330". The ammunition has clean lead tips and light tarnish on some cases. It should be emphasized that the condition of the last three boxes in this lot is outstanding with even the inspector's stamps on the inside flaps still crisp. Overall a tremendous sampling from the iconic American retailer. (76679-49BY)
3473. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of two factory sealed 50 rd. two-piece boxes of .22 Short by The Clinton Cartridge Co. in excellent condition. The first one has the red background to green and white graphics including the company logo at the center and against a somewhat faded top panel that also includes "Lesmok Powder Cartridges". The side panels reiterate info provided on the top but in white and within a bold green box in the form of "22-Short-22/Rim Fire/Lesmok Powder/Cartridges". The second box, currently covered securely by clear shrink wrap displays essentially the same graphic design but with the colors inverted in that the one-piece wraparound label has a bold forest green backdrop to the red and white logo and the side panels have red boxes. The most notable difference is that this one reads "Smokeless Cartridges". Also noteworthy is the upper left corner is beginning to peel back, likely from storage as these boxes which feature thumb cutouts are very clean with virtually no wear. A great pair from the Chicago based company. (76679-49BZ)

3474. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE BOXES This lot consists of four, one-piece 50 rd. size boxes beginning with a buff colored with black print that reads "50 Patronen/Zielmunition Kal. 5,6/"lang fur Buchsen"/faa/1943". This is representative of the Deutsche Waffen-und Munitionsfabriken A.-G., Karlsruhe, Germany factory. The box is mainly clean overall with some brown spotting on the bottom panel and the top has a tear that runs about halfway across. The box houses an excellent original tray with 14 apparently correct cartridges rating very good to excellent. Second is a full box with a white body and red text that includes ".22 Blanks/For Use With The/Webley/Target Launcher/Webley & Scott LTD., Park Lane/Handsworth, Birmingham 21, England". The box is excellent from a structural standpoint but the white body allows the bottom area's tan discoloration, likely from liquid and handling, to stand out. The enclosed original rds. rate excellent. Next are two empty examples from CCI, a Dart 22 Short in white, blue and red with green "HP", with tray and mild wear and a High Velocity Blazer .22 LR in white with red and black accents and some moderate brown staining. The 0022 code box includes the plastic tray. A diversified and interesting lot overall. (76679-49CA)

3475. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE BOXES This is a lot of two 50 rd. size boxes of .32 blank cartridges beginning with an empty example from Union Cap and Chemical Co. This is a buff colored box with black print that includes the Maltese Cross logo on the top panel and also above it "50 Rim Fire .32" and below it is "Short/Blank Cartridges" with the manufactured by info at the bottom, including "East Alton, Ill.". Also included from the text are side panels with "The Loudest Yet" on this fully intact and structurally strong box showing only very light wear and some mild to moderate dark splattered staining in isolated areas. The second box is also buff but more of a tan than the more off white one described above, and also with strong black print. This one is by The U.S. Cartridge Co. with the Lowell, Mass. address with a top panel upper section that reads "50 (trademark circular logo) .32/Blank Cartridges". All of the four side panels consist of ".32 Blank" in large font and the bottom has a large circular company logo. The box shows a small separation at the bottom left and a top inner flap is half separated but is otherwise quite sound and currently houses what appears to be very close to the original 50 rds. Additionally the box has a fairly dark stain from liquid or grease on the bottom that extends to one side. A rare combination of boxes in very acceptable condition. (76679-49CB)

3476. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE BOXES This is a lot of two full 50 rd. size boxes of .32 blank cartridges beginning with one from Remington UMC with the R139 code which features a bold red stripe pattern with blue text over a buff colored or possibly faded white box. The front panel features the red dot logo between "50" and ".32"/Blank/Cartridges/Rim Fire". Also interesting is the back panel which reads "Bevel Crimped Blanks/Extra Loud Report". The second box is by Peters and is about the same shade of off-white and also has excellent sharp text including the main panel that identifies it in red print with "50 (P.C.C. trademark logo) .32 Cal./Rim Fire./Extra Loud/Blank Cartridges./Peters Cartridge Co./Cincinnati, O., U. S. A.". The back panel reads "Extra Loud/Blank Cartridges./Unexcelled.". Each box is clean with sharp edges and rates excellent, though the Peters has a scuff on the bottom that has obliterated some text. The cartridges are bright overall with some tarnish forming on a few. A nice pair of items sure to please the discerning collector. (76679-49CC)

3476

The box and labels are fully intact with mild wear and scuffing and the ammunition rates good to very good with oxidized tips and mild tarnish. The second box has a light green top label and a code of 776 for .32 Long R.F. shot cartridges. Also included is "Loaded with (image of cartridge with .32 Shot within it) Chilled Shot.". The bottom is a possible mismatch and has a red side label with the correct caliber depicted on the sides and a small puncture hole for a rating of good to very good. The last box rates about good with damage to each of the three components to this faded red .32 cal. short box. (76679-49CD)

3478. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of three two-piece 50 rd. size boxes by Peters beginning with a factory sealed one for .25 Cal. Stevens with fully intact red labels including a slightly faded red top with the picture of the cartridge at the center between "Swaged" and "Bullets." The box rates about very good with mild wear and some dark staining, mainly towards the bottom, from contact with liquid. The second box is coded 35A and is for .32 Long R.F. Shot and rates about very good with thumb cutouts and a fully intact but discolored label. Included are three correct cartridges. The third box rates good with missing side panels and a darkened red patina to the label indicating that it is .38 cal. long. (76679-49CE)

3479. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of two Peters 50 rd. size boxes beginning with a two-piece for .32 Short R.F. The 1156 coded label is fully intact and features a perforated coded surcharge and the matching color scheme side label is 90% intact. The bottom panel has a retailer surcharge stamp by "Eugene Gun Store". Overall the box rates near excellent with only light wear and enclosed are about 43 correct and very good cartridges. The second box is a one-piece coded 2502 and features the blue, yellow, red and white color combination with the top and side panels stating that this is 25 Short Stevens lubricated lead bullet. It contains what appears to be 49 rds. of clean and original cartridges in a tray separating on one end. A nice and not so common pairing for the Peters collector. (76679-49CF)

3480. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of two 50 rd. size two-piece boxes by Peters beginning with an 865 coded example of .45 Auto. Colt Smokeless C.F. The faded orange top label has the exaggerated P and within it the image of the cartridge. The side label is less faded and both show areas that have scuffed away. The box in general rates good plus to very good with a puncture to the lid which shows glue repairs, moderate edge wear and some splitting. The bottom section has an inner wall that has separated but it contains 14 rds. of excellent condition and correct ammunition. The second box is in better structural condition with no repairs or splitting to the exterior. The green bordered top label, coded 909, is nearly fully intact and indicates that this is .44-40 Semi-Smokeless and features graphics as described in the example above. The empty box has an inner wall showing creasing and a small split at the right rear. The top and bottom panels have ink and pencil markings bringing this rating to perhaps near very good. (76679-49CG)

3481. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of two Winchester two-piece boxes for .32 short beginning with one with an olive green top label that is fully intact and exhibits the cartridge image with the head stamp with "H" visible and within the case is ".32 Short". To its right is ".32 Caliber" and below is "Rifle Cartridges". The 90% intact red side label has a front section with the patent date and a penciled in note, the back and sides provide the caliber. The bottom label is fully intact and the panel has some additional pencil markings. The empty box is still sealed at the back and overall rates near very good with foxing and light soiling. The second box is in better condition with the bright green top label still quite bold with virtually no foxing or wear. This version differs from the one described above in that the image does not show the head stamp and reads simply "Short" within the picture. To its right is "No. 32" and below is "Metallic Cartridges". The orange side label is fully intact with a small spot of creasing and the front and rear markings inverted from that of the above. The box houses the full 50 original cartridges with oxidized tips and darkened casings. A near excellent condition box overall with light wear and a small spot of a hardened gray substance at the lower left of the lid. (76679-49CF)
3482. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of two Winchester two-piece boxes beginning with a .30 Long with a darkened turquoise top label with the cartridge image top center without the head stamp showing and with "Long" enclosed. Beside it is "No. 30." and below is "Metallic Cartridges". The label is about 97% intact with light scuffing. The side label is in a much lesser state as the lid portion retains most of a cellophane tape covering and the bottom is about 15% present and there is no text present. The lid shows a glue repair and the box currently holds what appears to be 49 correct rds. with a white coating over the lead, and darkened cases. The box shows edge wear and ingrained dirt bringing the overall rating to near very good. The second box rates about very good to excellent containing about 47 correct rds. of .25 Stevens with clean tips and casings showing an uneven light coating that has transferred from the noses. The box has a light green top label that is about 97% intact with loss due to a scuff just above the large image of the cartridge at the center. This is the version with the visible head stamp and to its left is the trademark info, and to its right is "11 Grs. Powder/65 Grs. Bullet." which shows a handwritten "6" over it in thin marker. The orange side label is nearly fully intact with an isolated area showing white staining and the lid has splits at both back corners. The bottom has areas of grease and grime stains, the box with scattered ingrained dirt. An interesting pair of nearly full vintage boxes for the Winchester collector to consider. (76679-13)
3483. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of two empty large caliber boxes beginning with a Winchester with a green top label with an upper section that reads "50 (image of cartridge with short displayed within) No.46/Metallic Cartridges". The lid side label is about 40% present and the bottom half of the box appears to be a mismatch and is split at three sides. The box rates good overall with a missing right lid panel and hand written notes on the bottom panels. The second box is by UMC and rates about good as well with a green top label with faded black print with a top line that reads "50 Metallic Cartridges .44-100", the lower portion has "Winchester Repeating Rifle". The lid has a concave profile with the center area scuffed away and a portion of the back missing and another split. Additionally there is moderate wear, foxing and soiling overall. (76679-12)

Lead Bullets"/For Winchester Rifles Models 73 and 92". The side label is virtually fully intact with minor loss at the split and shows fading at the front lid. Enclosed are approximately 35 apparently original rounds with mostly clean tips, and tarnish forming on some of the metal. The overall rating is very good to excellent with light foxing and wear, the bottom panel with a penciled in number. The second box is empty and has the code 1-8 at the bottom of the faded red top label exhibiting a second line with ".38 Caliber W.C.F. Smokeless Cartridges" and a center with the cartridge image with ".38 Winchester Smokeless Soft Point" within it. To its left is the 1884 trademark info and to its right is "Smokeless Powder/180 Gr. Soft Point/Metal Patched Bullets.". Another variation from the box described above is "For Winchester Models 1873 and 1892 Repeating Rifles.". The side label, having retained very close to all of its original color is a considerably deeper red and is about 90% intact with a little additional peeling, the bottom label fully intact with a dark stain. The lid is still partially attached to the label at the front which also shows a split at the middle and another at the right that extends to the side. The box rates very good with some foxing and spots of grime on the top label, a slightly mis-shapen inner tray and evidence of contact with liquid at the bottom right rear. (76679-11)
3485. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of two empty two-piece Winchester boxes for 32 Long beginning with the older of the two with a light blue top label with a top line of "50 (image of cartridge without head stamp exposed but with "Long" on case) No.32/Rifle Cartridges". Below that is ".41 Cal. Nublend Powder (Red Diamond middle company logo) Short 130 Gr. Bullet" and below that is the company name and location and at the far lower right resides in small font "W.B. 20-60". The maroon-colored side label is about 95% intact with loss at the seal. The lid has splits at each corner and the box overall has very few blemishes or wear marks. The original 50 rds. are mainly clean with a little tarnish bringing the overall rating to near excellent to excellent. A very collectible and rare item. (76679-5)
3487. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of four 50 rd. size boxes for .22 blanks from different manufacturers beginning with a two-piece manufactured at the Kynoch Factories of Imperial Chemical Industries Limited in England. The box has a faded white wraparound label that is still sealed at the back and indicating that it once held long blanks. It rates excellent with bold red and black print. The other three are one-piece and apparently full of their respective short blanks. First is a U.S. Cartridge Co., from the era of blue, orange and white graphics with the Lowell address. Next is a Western buff colored box with red and blue print and a scuff at the upper right front panel. Last is a buff tone one by UMC with black print with a front that reads "Bevel Crimped Blanks/Extra Loud Report". (76679-4A)
3488. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOX This is a scarce two-piece box for Kynoch .41 Swiss. The buff colored box has a white label with a top section that reads in bold black print "20/.41 Smokeless Cartridges/For Swiss Vetterli Rifle, information that is repeated on the front panel which also adds the company name and location. This example is missing that part of the label that extends to the bottom compartment where the Kynoch name was originally depicted. Also missing is the right panel portion of the label, the left, 90% intact and reads "20/Cartridges/.41/Smokeless. The lid shows a split and tape residue at the back right corner. The bottom is fully intact and retains its original 20 compartment cartridge holder which rates excellent. The surfaces exhibit a mottled tan patina with some evidence of contact with liquid and a small three digit number written in pencil on the lid top. Overall a desirable item in about near very good condition. (76679-6A)

3489. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOX This is a scarce two-piece empty box by Remington UMC for .41 Swiss Blank. This version has the red side label, of which about 65% remains, and a large fully intact guarantee label on the bottom. The top label is fully intact as well showing an applied varnish that extends to the edges which show glue repairs at three corners. This box features the plaid “wall-paper” that shows mild wear and discoloration in areas and the onset of splits. The box houses 42 correct rds. rating near very good and eight additional cartridges with V head stamps and rating excellent. (76679-5A)
3491. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of two UMC boxes that are square shaped beginning with one with a faded orange label with the old UMC logo at the upper left and to its right is “20 Cartridges./Rimfire./For/58 Calibre Musket.”. The lower half of the label consists of “Union Metallic Cartridge Co./Bridgeport, Conn., U.S.A./Under Smith & Wesson’s Patent, April 17th, 1860”. The label is separating from the surface and exhibits rigid texture resulting from an applied coating. The two-piece buff box is fully intact, with an uneven alignment, wrinkling and creasing likely as a result of contact with some liquid. The inner wall is still attached and the box rates about very good with some scattered soiling and not much wear. A real survivor. The second box is another two-piece, this one with a green top label presented in a diamond shape and reads “25/(oval U.M.C. trademark logo)/Primed/Metallic Cartridges/For/Sporting (image of cartridge with .56-46 Spencer Sporting within it) Rifle/(manufacturer’s info)”. The matching color side label is about 50% present and includes a complete panel that features the oval logo above “56-46 Spencer/Sporting.” And two other panels include the cartridge image. The bottom guarantee label is fully intact with four strips of tape applied. The box is missing a lid panel and the bottom has tape across the perimeter. This is an about good to very good condition item with much staining to the top label. (76679-10)
3492. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of four 50 rd. size UMC boxes beginning with a one-piece with maroon backdrop to black and gold graphics including a top panel that reads “.32 Long R. F.” as the top line and also includes The Remington UMC red dot, the cartridge image and “Shot” presented diagonally on the right side. This 142-S coded box has both the Remington Arms and UMC Bridgeport Works names and is missing both end flaps, shows mild edge wear and contains six correct rds. The other three are two-piece beginning with a code 141 with light blue labels and a bright red dot logo to the left of “32 Extra Short R.F.”, the cartridge picture and “54 Grs. Bullet”. This is from the period when the company name read “The Remington Arms Union Metallic Cartridge Company Inc.” as depicted on this one in semi-curve layout. The side label is about 80% intact with aftermarket labels applied at each side and the guarantee label makes up the bottom. The box shows scattered mild staining and wear. The next one has the plaid body and tan labels informing that this is 32 Cal., LR. The top label includes the image with the caliber and the U logos at each side. The inner tray holds seven very good correct cartridges and has separated at the seam. The edges show mild to moderate wear and the box has an overall uneven brownish patina. The last box has an even darker appearance, enough to cause the text to be difficult to discern. This box, like the last one described, has the rounded corners and this one is of a configuration suitable for .32 Short R.F. as depicted on the top label exhibiting the aforementioned discoloration and wear. The empty box has a small puncture in the lid bringing the overall condition of this lot to about near very good. This is an interesting sampling representative of different eras. (76679-2)
3493. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of three empty UMC two-piece picture boxes starting with one with an orange top label that is about 96% intact with loss at the lower right corner and includes “50 No. 2 Pistol Cartridges.” and “.32 Calibre. Short.” above the picture of the revolver and beside the company logo. The lid has three split corners and the box rates very good with edge wear and portions of the side label missing. The second one is in a lesser state of condition as the lid is missing the rear and right panels but it does exhibit an excellent turquoise top label with an upper section that has “50 Metallic Cartridges. With Swaged Bullets. 30 Calibre. For XXX Standard Revolver, and other Pistols of this Calibre.” This information is laid out around the large picture of the gun serving as the main focal point. The bottom is a possible mismatch and is fully intact with a note written in ink on the bottom and some moderate scuffing on the sides. The last box rates near very good with a bright green top label with “100 No. 1./Pistol Cartridges.” Also included is a large picture of the revolver, the company logo and “22/100”. This version, like the ones above, has the plaid design and this .22 box has the orange side label with the caliber depicted on the right side. This is a near very good example with small portions of the rear lid missing, split rear lid corners and tape residue at each of its corners. A nice combination of three, not typically easily obtained picture boxes available by way of one successful bid. (76679-2A)
3494. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of two UMC two-piece 50 rd. size boxes with the rounded corners beginning with a factory sealed example with tan labels and red print including a top one that includes “.25 Automatic Colt Pistol/50 Central Fire Cartridges/(the UMC red dot logo) (image of cartridge with head stamp and caliber depicted) Smokeless 50 Grs. Bullet Metal Cased/Manufactured by/The Union Metallic Cartridge Co.” The sealed side label has a few scuffs, as does the bottom guarantee label, and the top label has a large two letter ink marking at its center. The second box is empty and has lime green labels including a top one that includes “.25 Stevens R.F.”, separate UMC and Remington logos on either side of the cartridge image and the company information as follows “Remington Arms Union Metallic Cartridge Co. (in curved layout)/Ammunition & Firearms/Union Metallic Cartridge Works/Bridgeport, Conn., U.S.A.”. The label has some faded handwritten numbers at the center. The side label is about 70% present and the fully intact bottom label bears the 4-B code. The box is structurally sound and shows light edge wear. Overall a very good lot for the UMC or Remington collector. (76679-4B)
3495. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of four 50 rd. size Remington .22 boxes including the first two that are two-piece with the rounded corners and from the period of the association with UMC beginning with one for .22 Automatic Rifle. It has labels with the lime green, red, and black color scheme with trademark logos displayed prominently including a top one with the image of the cartridge with a gold colored casing and a gray nose. The nearly fully intact end caps include “Winchester 1903” and the bottom label, also fully present bears the code 7-A and includes the dual language guarantee. The box exhibits light wear and soiling, a top label with scuffs that have obscured some text and enclosed are approximately 47 excellent and correct cartridges. The second box is .22 Remington Autoloading HP Bullet and exhibits an overall tan patina including fully intact labels. The front panel has perfectly aligned top and bottom seams allowing for an impressive picture of the Remington Autoloading Rifle and the bottom label exhibits a surface with nearly entirely worn text. Overall, the 27-O coded box shows much less wear and this near excellent condition example includes one correct cartridge. The last two boxes are one-piece Kleanbores with the red and white over green color schemes including a .22 Short coded RIOL with the dog bone style Remington UMC logo and rating good to very good with a missing right flap. The other one is a .22 LR Hi-Skor coded R-21H, rating very good with all panels present with creasing and light soiling. A diversified combination for the .22 or Remington collector. (76679-5B)

This version has the orange side label over the plaid pattern wallpaper and consists of a right side that consists of simply "41" and a back with the warranty/guarantee statement with the balance of the nearly fully intact label being plain. The lid shows glue repairs at each corner and along the length of the front and the bottom, on the left end. Also noteworthy on this scarce box is that the top label is missing a couple of small sections and shows the onset of a small split near the center and the edges show mild wear. Enclosed are approximately 20 very good correct caliber cartridges with no head stamps and mildly oxidized tips. Also included is a loose label that reads "Primed Metallic Ammunition/50 Cartridges./41-100 Long," with the name and location below it, and below that is the S&W patent date, but as opposed to the April 17 date, this one reads "April 16, 1860". Also notable on this box with light to mild edge wear is the bottom panel exhibiting English and Spanish guarantee statements. The last three boxes have clean crisp edges and rate excellent. The second "dog bone" box is coded R17L for .22 LR Lubricated Bullets. The next example is Kleanbore Hi-Speed .22 LR with The Remington and Dupont logos and coded R23 and the last box has an identical layout but is .22 Short and is coded R11. The box is missing most of the left end flap and exhibits mild edge wear and overall soiling. Enclosed is one correct cartridge with moderate tarnish. The second box, like the balance of this lot, features the Remington red dot and the Dupont red oval logos. This empty example, coded R20 is missing its entire left end flap and has less wear and soiling than that of the above described and has a top panel that includes "Hi-Speed/.22 Klay Bird/For Miniature Trap & Skeet Shooting". The next three rate excellent overall with crisp edges beginning with an empty 6122 code box for Standard Velocity LR. Next is a 6322 code Police Targetmaster .22 LR Lubricated with four excellent rds. enclosed. The last one is a full R23 code for Hi-Speed LR HP that is virtually blemish free but has a front panel that has become unglued and excellent and clean cartridges. (76679-5E)

3500. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of a full 500 rd. size brick coded 1054 NS of Remington-UMC .22 LR NRA Target Lesmok Powder Cartridges. The buff colored brick houses ten excellent condition 50 rd. boxes coded 54-N.S. with the orange backdrop to black and white text and the red dot logo. The ammunition has oxidation forming on the tips that has transferred to the metal causing mild tarnish. The outer box is somewhat brittle with mild edge wear, a separated inner right end flap, some seam splitting, light liquid stains and soiling. The graphics remain strong and include a top panel with the Remington UMC red dot logo as its centerpiece. Also noteworthy is that this is a picture box, with the back panel including "These Cartridges are specially recommended for use in Remington NRA Target Rifle." with a picture of the rifle displayed prominently in an angular layout. Also included is the address section with both "Remington Arms Company, Inc. (in a rounded presentation)" and the "UMC Bridgeport Works" names. A not frequently encountered package by the famous maker. (76679-5G)

3501. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of three 50 rd. size boxes for .22 cal by Canadian Industries Limited including the first two being full Whiz-Bang High Velocity examples that open by way of the top flap and feature dark orange, yellow and black graphics with the cartridge image on the left of the flap and the C-I-L oval logo at the center. The first of these is coded RF 23 and is for 22 LR with the box rating near excellent with overall strong graphics and edges, light dirt spots and the bottom flap beginning to split at each end. The second box, like the first exhibits "Whiz-Bang" at the upper right, "Dry Lubricated" bottom right and the caliber, in this case 22 Short, at the lower left. This RF-11 box rates excellent with just a small wear mark at the top front crease and extremely faint scattered soiling. The last box has a top line that includes "Bisley" in large font and below we are informed that this is Intermediate Velocity 22 LR Greased. The RF-37 coded box exhibits more of a red tone to accompany the yellow and black graphics that also include the cartridge picture at the left and the oval logo at the center. This box is in a slightly lesser state of condition, showing that it has been handled a bit, with light wear marks and only one cartridge has been removed. The remaining 49 cartridges like those of the full boxes rate excellent. (76679-5H)

3502. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of five one-piece .22 cal boxes by Canadian Industries Limited. These are Whiz Bang boxes that open by way of the top flap including the first two from the period when the Dominion name was mentioned in the lower blue section of the top panel on these boxes which also include red-orange, yellow and white graphics. The first one has a top blue section that consists of ".22 Long Mushroom "Super Clean"" and a middle section that includes the cartridge image in a horizontal position. The box has a separated but present right inner flap and houses about 45 rds. of original cartridges. The second box houses 49 rds. of the .22 Short "Super-Clean" as depicted on the upper section of this offering, which has identical configuration to the one described above. The other three boxes are from the period when the company information was on the bottom and the name did not include anything but "Canadian Industries Limited". The graphics include the colors red-orange, yellow and white with vertical positioning of the cartridge picture at the top panel's right side and are composed of gold and gray colors. These are all high velocity, with the first one being simply "22 Long", coded RF-21 and currently holding two rds. The next one is an RF-25 with "22 Long Rifle Shot" provided for identification and the last one, "22 Short Mushroom" is coded RF-12. Unless otherwise mentioned the boxes in this lot are fully intact and like their ammunition rate excellent. (76679-5I)

3503. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of two boxes by Dominion Cartridge Co. with the first of this duo of opened two-piece 50 rd. boxes having a faded red top label that reads "50 (image of cartridge at an angle to emphasize the D head stamp with .38 Short within it and Dominion immediately below it) .38/Metallic Cartridges/The Primed Shells Are Manufactured By (in small font)/Dominion Cartridge Co., Ltd./Montreal, Canada.". The side label is still a bold cranberry red and reads ".38 Short/R. F." on each panel. Both labels are nearly entirely present but the top one shows moderate scattered scuffing and the lid has a tape-repaired rear left corner and a split front one. The bottom panel has a large penciled in note and enclosed are the full and original 50 cartridges with oxidized tips that has transferred to the metal. Clearly an uncommon item to hit the market. The next item appears to contain 48 original rds. and is also a scarce item, a .32 Long Cal. buff colored box with a virtually fully intact brown top label with gold print and configured similar to the one described above but also includes the trademark logo at the bottom left. The sides feature red text with the front and rear panels announcing the company name, while the right and left bear ".32/ Long R.F./Shot. The box is delicate, split at the lengths of the lid and bottom and there is another split at the upper rear left corner. The ammunition has darkened and rates very good. (76679-2A)
3504. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of four boxes by Dominion/CIL including the first two of these 50 rd. size two-piece examples that were produced during the period of when the manufacturer was named Dominion Cartridge Co. Limited, as depicted on the wraparound labels on these, including one that has red and gray horizontal sections that run across the top panel. This one also has a red upper section that indicates that it is .22 LR and is "Smokeless Powder" and the sides are gray with red text including the right which is mostly missing. The emerald green colored box has a moderately soiled lid with all corners split and the bottom houses the original full 50 cartridges rating very good. The other Dominion has a fully intact red and white label indicating that it is 32 Long Black Powder and like all of the boxes in this lot contains a top middle section with the company logo and the "Adapted to" statement. The label and buff colored empty box have mild soiling and a couple of white stains. The other two boxes have red and yellow wraparound labels that include lower top panels with "Made in Canada By/Canadian Industries Limited/Dominion Ammunition Division" The first of these has a fully present label declaring that it is 22 Long Shot Super Clean of which it contains the full 50 rds. rating near very good with tarnish. The box, like all in this lot, features thumb cutouts and this one has light dirt and wear and some peeling at the right side label. The second of these is in a lesser state of condition with overall moderate soiling and uneven label surfaces with the left side missing on this 32 Long Lesmok box. A convenient lot to obtain both .22 and .32 boxes from different eras of the Montreal maker(s). (76679-2B)
3505. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a full 500 rd. size brick of CIL Imperial 22 LR High Velocity Mushroom. The RF-563 coded outer box features yellow and black graphics and shows only light wear and soiling and a small split on the left flap of the top opening panel. The excellent condition ammunition comes in plastic trays within the brick fresh RF-63 coded gold embossed boxes that feature red, black and white print and the picture of the cartridge in a vertical position on the right top panel. A not often encountered full brick, especially in this state of condition. (76679-4C)
3506. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of five .22 boxes from three different manufacturers beginning with a two-piece by Clinton, a .22 short box with a faded red top section to the fully intact and well-worn wrap-around label. Also noteworthy on this empty box with thumb cutouts is the green portions of the label, including the company logo front and center, have retained a bold appearance and the fully intact buff colored box has only light soiling and wear. The other four boxes are one-piece with trays including two by Sears beginning with an empty .22 Short Sta-Klean Kopper Kote No. 316, rating excellent with the dark blue background to orange and white graphics (reminiscent of U.S. Cartridge). The other is .22 LR Shot Sta-Klean Kopper Kote coded 90 SR with an orange background to blue and white, showing mild edge wear, a lower right top panel beginning to peel back and currently housing six cartridges with no discernable head stamps. The last two are by Montgomery Ward beginning with a fully intact and empty 60-905 with a red background to black and white text identifying this as .22 LR Long Range showing bold color and only light wear. The other one features a finger cutout at the top right panel, a slide out tray design, free of end flaps and a green background to black and white print informing that this is .22 LR Lesmok. Enclosed are two correct sample cartridges. Overall a very good to near excellent and interesting lot. (76679-5J)
3507. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of four .22 cal. one-piece boxes by Peters beginning with a Dewar Match 22 LR No.2296 with gold, black and white graphics including a top panel where the gold has faded to silver in areas. The box currently houses a perfectly fitting wood support box. The last three are of the silver, black and white design pattern with the first being No. 2283, a .22 LR High Velocity Rustless, currently housing about 15 mixed rds. of the caliber. Next is a No. 2270, for High Velocity Filmkote .22 Long HP housing the full and excellent 50 rds. The last one is also a full 50 rd. box., No. 2267, also with excellent ammunition, this being High Velocity Filmkote .22 Short. Overall this is an excellent condition representation of .22 Peters for the period. (76679-5K)
3508. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of six one-piece Peters boxes beginning with an apparently full 100 rd. box of excellent .22 Cal. Smokeless C.B. Caps in a pink box with a top panel that has faded to white. The box has crisp graphics and edges and has a split at the bottom left panel. In addition there are two empty boxes as described above except one has a minor liquid stain at the lower front panel and the other a more pronounced and larger stain extending from that panel to the ends. These are housed in their original 500 rd. outer, a buff colored box with black print and top and bottom panels that read "Peters Smokeless"/(P trademark logo)/C.B. Caps/ (company info.). The front and rear panels include "500 in Package. 100 in Each Box." and "Sure Fire and Accurate. For Gallery and Target Practice in .22-Caliber". Next is another empty 100 rd. size box for 22 cal. B.B. Caps, but this one from the era of yellow, red, blue and white print, this one a No. 2212 rating excellent with a front panel that includes "Rustless" in the red stripe. The next one is also empty with the same colors, this one larger and for 38 Smith & Wesson blank. The box has a little fading on one panel, some light corner wear and the text includes "Extra Loud Report". Also evident is some creasing and a missing inner top flap. Something unusual for the Peters or box collector. (76679-5L)
3509. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a brick consisting of 500 rds of Winchester .22 C.B. Caps contained in five 100 rd. size boxes. The outer box, coded K 2006 R, is buff colored with blue and red text that includes the trademark Winchester name logo as well as "Staynless" alongside the big bold W logo. The box shows a slightly inconsistent faded appearance with a couple of splits on the top flaps and a somewhat brittle texture in areas. The inner boxes feature the red, blue and yellow graphics including matching product code. The box packed at the top exhibits foxing or contact with liquid on the top panel but the balance of the contents including the cartridges rates excellent. A nice find as it is a complete brick with the right condition contents. (76679-5M)
3510. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a full 500 rd. size brick with a front panel that consists of the Winchester trademark name logo at the top and below it is "Boy Scouts of America/22 Long Rifle Rimfire/75th Anniversary/Commemorative Ammunition". The box appears as new and was under shrink wrap and appeared to have never been opened until the time of this inspection, however upon opening, the left inner flap shows the number 118 handwritten in pencil. The contents rate as-new as well, with the ten 50 rd. size boxes exhibiting the illustration of the young boy scout shooting a lever action rifle, a scene incorporated into a greater Boy Scout themed collage that makes up the front panel of the outer box. A great find in premium condition. (76679-5N)

3511. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a factory sealed two-piece .22 cal. Winchester box with fully intact green labels including a top one that has a top line with "50 (image of cartridge with H head stamp and Short on case) No.22"/Rifle Cartridges". Also included are the H trademark and Stetson's Oct. 31, 1871 Patent logos. The panels exhibit various levels of faded green labels with strong black print on each, including a front panel that reads ".22 Cal. Short, 1/2/Target Cartridges/Winchester Make". Each side reads ".22 Cal./Short, 1/2" and the back consists of the guarantee. The box rates excellent with a light blemish on the front panel far left and the beginning of a split on the right side label. A nice clean and crisp example for the Winchester or .22 box collector. (76679-5P)

3512. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of two of the early Winchester one-piece boxes for .22 cal. with the dark blue background to horizontally-arranged graphics in red, white and blue. The first of these 50 rd. size offerings is .22 Auto Kopperklad Bullet in a fully intact outer that has a penciled in "1931" on the lower top panel and "Du 1931" on the bottom. The box also exhibits a scuff on the left side of the front panel and rates near excellent as does the approximately 45 rds. of correct cartridges included. The second box contains 49 rds. of a combination of correct 22 LR Staynless cartridges with most being clean and excellent and the balance near very good with mild oxidation. The box has separated but present end flaps and overall there is light fading and wear showing, bringing the condition to about very good. These boxes feature the Winchester name trademark logo at the top and also include the image with H head stamp at the center and the W logo at the lower left. A nice pair of vintage Winchester. (76679-5Q)

3513. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of two opened two-piece 50 rd. boxes of .22 Winchester Rim Fire. The first of these boxes by Winchester has an olive green top label coded 9 and 3-20 and includes the company name logo top center, the image at the immediate center and below it is "Lesmok Rifle Cartridges". The front panel consists of the guarantee and the rear includes "For Winchester Model 90 Rifle" and the codes 144 and 4-20. Each side includes the big bold W in orange and "Model 90" and the box is full of excellent original cartridges with clean tips. The labels are essentially intact with mild fading and wear. The second box is a slightly different variation for the same caliber. This one has a brown top label coded 9 and 10-15 with slightly different font of the same text to the label described above. The front guarantee label includes 144 and 9-15 and the back differs in font and that it reads "Model 1890" as opposed to simply "90" as mentioned above. This box is in a somewhat lesser state of condition as it has splits at the right lid corners, more pronounced scuffing and a small portion missing at the upper right top label. This box contains 49 very good and correct cartridges. A couple of nice period examples of the same caliber. (76679-5R)

3514. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a full 500 rd. brick by Western with an off-white outer box with red and blue print including that on the top which includes the company trademark name logo and below it is "Super-Match Mark II/22 Long Rifle Cartridges/40 Grain Lead Greased Bullet". This outer box, stamped "WCC6171", has some separation of the right end flap but is otherwise intact with mild edge wear, a few scattered light scuffs and some ingrained dirt. The enclosed ten 50 rd. size one-piece boxes rate excellent as does the ammunition contained within. They exhibit bold blue, yellow and white graphics, crisp edges and like the outer box, the code K1267R. A not too common package for the .22 box collector. (76679-5S)

3515. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a full 500 rd. brick by Remington UMC of .22 Long Rifle Lesmok Powder, as depicted on the end flaps, which include white surcharge labels that read "Indoor Target/For Use Only In Single Shot Rifles". This buff colored outer is somewhat brittle with some splits occurring along with mild wear and soiling. This is a picture box with the back panel exhibiting "These Cartridges are specially recommended for Remington-UMC Repeating Rifles" and the image of the rifle displayed between the company logos. The front panel includes the Remington name exhibited in its curved layout above "UMC Bridgeport Works". The ten 50 rd. size boxes contained within are of two-piece construction with all remaining factory sealed by way of the still bright orange side label which also contains the image of the repeater rifle, in this case on the front panels. Each of the smaller boxes also includes on their top panels, the same white surcharge labels except these show no fading or wear and have bold black print. Also noteworthy is the code 20 depicted on the lower right of the rear panels. These boxes rate excellent with a few showing some scattered dark spotting. This is a great find for the .22 box or Remington UMC collector. (76679-5T)

3516. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of three two-piece, square style boxes by UMC beginning with one with teal-blue labels including a top one with an upper section that reads "25 .56-56 Spencer". This example, like the other two in this lot, exhibits a large image of the cartridge at the center with the caliber depicted within it, and above it in large font is "Rim-Fire Cartridges", below is the trademark U logo on either side and below that is the company name and location. Included on this box is a maroon surcharge label that informs that in this case the box was actually packed with blanks, of which one sample is enclosed. The box is fully intact with a small puncture at the lower top panel, portions of the side label missing, mild soiling but nice edges overall. The second has labels of different shades of green, perhaps as a result of fading to the top light green label, stating that this is .56-46 and the nearly fully intact emerald green side label has bold black print. This box, like the one above, also retains a nice salmon colored bottom panel guarantee label. The last box is .56-52 Spencer and is in a lesser state of condition with two side panels missing from the lid and another showing a glue repair and a possibly mismatched lower section with an upside-down sealing label, a missing bottom label, a punctured and split inner wall and indications of contact with liquid. Three, not usually very easily acquired, UMC items available in one lot. (76679-9)

3517. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a factory sealed 50 rd. box of Remington UMC 9mm Caps with red labels that feature the image at the center, red dot logo above it and on either side of it is "Cartuchos/Cal. 9mm". Below that on one side is "Con Bala" and on the other "Com Bala" and below that is "Cartouches A Balle Cal 9mm". Each company name is depicted in the lower section. The front and rear panels read "Specially adapted for Cal 9mm Flober and other Rifles". The box rates excellent with light fading and wear to the top label and strong print throughout including the rubber stamp at the bottom. (76679-26)
3518. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE BOXES. This is a lot of three UMC items beginning with a factory sealed box of 250 No. 1 1/2 Brass Primers. It has a green wraparound label with a top section that also includes "For Pistol and Rifle Cartridges./Adapted to Black Powder." The label has some staining resulting from contact with liquid and has a pencil marking on the bottom. The box is excellent structurally. The other two items are empty two-piece boxes with the rounded corner design beginning with a small one with the black marble-like background to fully intact orange labels including a top one that reads "100 No.1/Bullet Breech Caps./For .22 Calibre /Pistols And Rifles." with the UMC info below. The box shows mild edge wear with corners reinforced with a light offering of glue and a name written in pencil on the interior lid. The last item has the plaid wallpaper style panels with maroon labels including an excellent top one with the UMC logos at each upper corner and between them is "Fifty .38 Cal./Rim Fire/Blank Cartridges./For Pistols". The lower portion contains the UMC name and location. The box rates near very good with much of the side label missing, mild edge wear and housing a second guarantee label. A diversified lot for the UMC aficionado. (76679-11A)
3519. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of two boxes by UMC with the first of the two-piece offerings with the plaid walls having yellow labels including a top one that features the old UMC logo at each upper corner and between them is "50 Cartridges./30 Calibre-Long.". The lower half of the label consists of "Manufactured By The Union Metallic Cartridge Company./Bridgeport, Conn.". The lid has split corners on its left and a slightly uneven profile, likely from the liquid that left a stain over much of its surface. Otherwise the box has mild edge wear and houses about 40 cartridges with a light coating of white powder, having transferred to its cases. The other box has blue labels including a slightly faded top one with an upper section that reads "50 .30 Cal., Short/Rim-Fire Cartridges/Swaged (image of cartridge with U head stamp and .30 Short on case) Bullets". Below that is the U head stamp at each side and the company name and address. The side label is about 70% intact, the bottom 100% with mild scuffing. The box has nice edges and the typical areas of fading to tan. Enclosed are eight correct sample cartridges with a thorough coating of oxidation powder. (76679-13A)
3520. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of two picture boxes by UMC starting with a .32 Short that has the rounded corners and the plaid design under orange labels. The top one features the UMC logo top left and a top line that reads "Fifty. .32 Calibre Short. No. 2". The large image of the revolver makes up a good portion of the surface and below it is "Pistol Cartridges/With Swaged Bullets.". The side label has a matching shade of orange and is about 80% intact. Moderate corner wear is evident and the box houses approximately 25 oxidized cartridges. The next box is larger, as this is for .32 Long, and has the conventional rectangular design with the plaid panels. The top label contrasts with the bright orange side label as it is a tan or almost salmon shade with strong black text that reads on the left side "Fifty No.2 Pistol Cartridges.". To its right resides an impressive picture of the revolver and above that is ".32 Calibre." and the UMC logo. This top label is fully intact, the side one about 80%. This example has mild wear and is quite clean overall. Enclosed are maybe 35 correct rds. with the oxidation limited to the tips for the most part. A couple of collectible pieces certainly worthy of consideration and very good representatives of their era. Also included is a loose top label from a "32-100 Short" box. The bright green label features a strong picture of the No. 2 Revolver. (76679-2B)
3521. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of six one-piece 50 rd. size Remington Kleanbore .22 boxes. First is a dog bone style coded R16 for .22 Long Rim Fire with four darkened cartridges within. The second has dog bone style similarities but the logo does not taper towards the middle but retains enough white background to hold "Hollow Point" as in .22 Winchester Hi-Speed with Silvadry Bullets. This R28AS example is missing the right end flap and currently houses about 40 near excellent rds. The third one is LR Hi-Speed Kleanbore Kleankote, an empty example coded R23K. The next two are also Hi-Speed with the first being for Long, coded R16 and holding about 25 excellent rds., and the second holding the full 50, and also excellent rds. of Short within the R11 box. The last one is coded 5522, this one for standard velocity Short, of which about 30 near excellent cartridges are enclosed. A nice variety, rating very good to near excellent overall which should prove helpful in filling gaps in one's Remington .22 box collection. (76679-5U)
3522. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of five empty one-piece boxes by CIL/Dominion beginning with three of the 500 rd. variety. The first one is a .22 Short that has a separated top panel stating that it is "Made In Canada By/Canadian Industries Limited/Dominion". This is the style with the buff colored box with blue graphics, this one rating good plus with a small portion cut out and missing. The second box has the same color scheme, this one slightly larger as it is for .22 LR Whiz-Bang and, as is the case for the one above, Super Clean Dry Lubricated Bullet. The top flap is partially split with the balance intact. The front panel has an ink note bringing the overall condition to near very good for this No. 713 coded example that exhibits only the CIL name. The last of the 500 rounder's is a yellow and black outer brick box for Imperial 22 LR and rates very good with a moderate scuff on the right panel and tape residue. The other two are 50 rd. size beginning with an excellent RF-32, a buff colored .22 LR Super Clean standard velocity with blue and red graphics. Lastly is one that opens at the RF-11 coded top flap, a 22 Short Whiz-Bang with the red, yellow and blue graphics and rating excellent. (76679-28)
3523. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION These are four 50 rd. size boxes representative of the evolution of Dominion/CIL beginning with an empty two-piece for .32 Long R.F. This is from the period when the manufacturer was solely Dominion Cartridge Co., Ltd. and has a fully intact red-orange top label that includes as a central focal point in large font: "Metallic Cartridges". Each of the sides of the buff colored box has strong text under an old tape application, bringing the rating to very good. The other two-piece example in this lot is in a slightly lesser state of condition with more wear and soiling, a dark gray, almost green colored box with thumb cutouts and a maroon and white wraparound label indicating that this is for .22 Long R.F. The company name on this is also Dominion Cartridge Co. Limited. The last two are full one-piece boxes in excellent condition and with ammunition also clean and excellent. The first, coded TT-59 is off white with dark blue and is for .22 LR Smokeless Greased Super Clean and the other is .22 LR Super Clean Whiz-Bang with the blue, yellow and red print and is coded TT-52. The last two boxes exhibit the name "Canadian Industries Limited/Dominion Ammunition Division". A nice diverse lot by the Montreal maker. (76679-2C)
3524. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of four full 50 rd. .22 boxes by CIL beginning with a buff colored two-piece with thumb cutouts of 22 Long Super Clean Whiz-Bang Graphited Bullet. This has a wraparound label that includes the Dominion name and with mild wear and peeling, the box has light creasing. The other three are one-piece boxes beginning with another Whiz-Bang, this one being 22 LR High Velocity Mushroom, with a left end flap including the code RF-34. The bottom panel includes "Canadian Industries (1954) Limited" and the box is crisp with scattered and light tan spotting. The last two are the style that opens at the top, including an RF-21 rating excellent, and a top that informs that this is Whiz-Bang High Velocity 22 Long. The last one, an RF-10, has a split front left corner and a top that includes 22 Short Super-Clean Standard Velocity. The box has a few light scuffs and rates about very good. All of the ammunition in this lot rates excellent. (76679-49CG)

3525. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of four 50 rd. size boxes by the United States Cartridge Co. The first one is essentially a one-piece but with a side label that once sealed the now empty pull out tray and a top label that includes "Smith & Wesson's .32 Automatic Ejecting Revolvers" and a large image of the revolver below it. The light blue label is peeling back and exposes the left side of another U.S Cartridge label, this one with the shield logo at the center. The faded orange side label reaffirms that this is a .32 S&W box and it rates good plus with soiling and wear. The second box is in a similar state as it is missing both end flaps, has a split tray and exhibits moderate wear on its surfaces that consist of the dark blue backdrop to orange and white graphics, in this case for .32 Short R.F. The third box has the same color scheme and design but is a factory sealed example with text informing us that this is 22 NRA Long Rifle Lesmok. This one has strong color but there is a moderate scuff running nearly the full length of the upper top panel. The last box is a near excellent one-piece with the New York address and features black, white and faded copper colored graphics that indicate that this is .22 Long Copperhead Speedsters, of which there are currently 49 excellent rds. enclosed in the tray with a split corner. (76679-2D)
3526. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of two 50 rd. size boxes by U.S. Cartridge Co. from the period of two-piece construction and top labels with the shield logo at their center. First is an opened but full box of 30 Long, or as depicted at the right side of the label, "30/100 Long Calibre" which also includes a yellow side label with a front panel that reads "Target Cartridges" and the sides stating the caliber. This example has a nearly perfect upper/lower compartment alignment with sharp edges but there is discoloration, likely mainly foxing and the ammunition has only light oxidation. Also noteworthy is that it retains the original information sheet in excellent condition. The second box does not line up nearly as well, with a lid that is tape-repaired and with an uneven profile. The top label is fully intact and has a right side that reads "No. 32 Long 32/100 Calibre." over an uneven tan liquid staining or foxing. The orange side label has identical text design to the one described above. The bottom compartment is fully intact and currently houses 35 very good cartridges showing an onset of white powder to the tips. An interesting sampling from the very collectible maker. (76679-13A)
3527. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of three 50 rd. size U.S. Cartridge boxes including two factory sealed examples beginning with a .32 Short, rating near excellent with light staining evident on the top label and an only slightly faded orange side label that is also fully intact with sharp black print that includes on the front panel between the logos "Target Cartridges" and "32 Short" on each side. The second sealed box is more recent, featuring the blue backdrop to orange and white graphics, including a top label with the oval logo and a moderate scuff running the length of its lower portion. The side sealing label is excellent and fully intact with bold text proclaiming that the contents are "22 NRA Lesmok". The third box, an open two-piece from the period of the first one listed above, with the shield as the central figure on the top label, rates about good to good plus. To the right of the shield on this one the oval includes "No. 22 22/100 Calibre". The lid has missing side panels and has a very dark patina over a wavy surface. The bottom is fully intact but shows stains from contact with liquid. (76679-2E)
3528. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of four Peters one-piece, 50 rd. .22 boxes including two full ones starting with a No. 2237 code, indicative of the yellow, blue and red graphics depicting 22 Winchester Automatic Rustless lead bullet, the likes of which, in this instance, rate excellent as housed in the correct and excellent condition tray. Also rating excellent is the 22 LR High Velocity contained in the red and blue box with white text including the code No. 2283. The third box in this lot is no. 2216 R which has a top panel with yellow borders around a blue backdrop to a red oval with white text stating that this is Rustless .22 Long Rifle of which 49 near excellent cartridges are enclosed. The last one exhibits the silver, black and white graphics used to identify the contents which in this instance is .22 Short Rustless Filmkote. This No. 2242 coded example has a tray with a separated end flap and currently holds 12 excellent and correct samples. A great find for the .222 or Peters box collector. (76629-49CH)

The box rates very good to excellent with light wear, ingrained dirt and other minor dark spots. The next is also a two-piece, rating good to very good with rear and left panels missing to the lid that has a nearly fully intact maroon top label indicating that this is .32 Cal. Short and includes P trademark logos on each side of the cartridge picture. This is the version with the matching color side label with a front section that includes "These Cartridges are loaded with King's Semi-Smokeless Powder". The bottom panel is pushed in, evidently impacted by something that also caused the lower left corner to split. The inner wall has come unglued and has been structurally compromised as well. The other two are one-piece boxes in excellent condition with red, blue and white print with the first exhibiting the large Peters circular logo to the left of "New High Velocity 22 Long Rifle". The last box in this lot is code No. 2214, an excellent condition example which features the bullseye target as a backdrop to text identifying this as 22 Short Standard Velocity Target. The last two boxes contain the Remington name and location on the bottom panels, contributing to the diversity of this Peters lot. (76679-2F)

3532. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE BOXES This lot consists of six one-piece boxes and one lid only. First is a full buff colored Winchester box of .22 Blank Extra Loud exhibiting strong red text with the exception of the main information panel which in this case is the back of this example with a thumb cutout top flap. The box is in excellent structural condition but with scattered dark staining and the cartridges rate very good to excellent with some tarnish. The next one is the Remington UMC version of the above described and in similar condition. This one has the banner with vertical red and buff stripes and mainly blue text including the R9 code. The next one is another Remington UMC similar to the previous box but with black text other than the red dot logos and rating good to very good with missing flaps and a small puncture. The next one is by CIL, coded RF2, features a dark blue backdrop to white graphics that include French verbiage stating that this also is .22 Blanks. This one holds the full 50 rds. in excellent condition and the front panel has a large grease pencil or possibly ink marking. Next is an excellent and empty 100 rd. CIL B.B. Caps box with a buff background to green text that includes the Dominion name. The last box is a good condition example by Western for .22 Short Blanks. This is one of the scarce Maltese Cross boxes. The last item as mentioned above is a lid only but with a fully intact orange label that includes "100 Winchester Conical Bullet Breech Caps .22 Caliber Rifles only." and rates excellent with light fading. A nice group of items not often encountered. (76679-44B)

Below this is the company name and location and as part of that is "Division of Western Cartridge Company". Also worth mentioning is this is a picture box and includes the image of the target rifle on the back panel. The right exterior end flap and one of the interior flaps are missing and the left flap is separated but present. The K2388R coded internal boxes feature bold yellow, blue and red graphics and rate excellent as does the ammunition contained within. Outstanding boxes on their own and even more desirable as a brick package. (76679-28A)
3536. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a full brick of Western Super-X Long Range 22 Short HP. The outer box is buff with blue and red print and shows mild edge wear, a couple of small tears and is missing a total of three end flap pieces. 3537. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of four Western 50 rd. size one-piece boxes with the yellow, blue and red print. First is a code SX22S, a Super-X Long Range 22 Short containing about 45 rds. and rating excellent overall. Next is a 22 LR version of the one above but this one, coded SX22 LR, has a missing left end flap and contains seven cartridges. These two .22 boxes have the Winchester and Olin Mathieson Chemical names. The other two are older with more wear and soiling and exhibit the target on the top panel and the image of the cartridge on the bottom which shows simply "Western Cartridge Company" and also "Division of Olin Industries". The first one is for 44-40 Winchester Center Fire 200 gr. SP Lualoy and rates about good plus with a missing right end flap, a split but attached left one, moderate edge wear and a white area of discoloration on the top. Included are about 25 rds. of mixed head stamp but correct caliber rating very good. The last box is an empty, fully intact K1243R for 32 Short RF 80 gr. Bullet with moderate wear and soiling. 3538. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of four 50 rd. size boxes by Western beginning with a two-piece with thumb cutouts and a green wraparound label with black and red accents. The trademark diamond logo is featured at the center and to its left is ".22 Cal. Short", to its left is "Gallery Special". Enclosed are the full 50 original rds. with oxidized tips bringing the overall rating to very good. The second box rates excellent as do the approximately 47 correct rds. of Super-X Long Range 22 LR as depicted on this one-piece box with end flap marked "90CN". The last two boxes, like the previous one, are one-piece and feature the yellow, blue and red print and like the other two in this lot, the Western Cartridge Co. name only. The first of these is a square shaped example for 32 Short Blank stamped "K1242R", rating near excellent with crisp edges, a separated but present inner flap and about 20 excellent and correct cartridges. The last box is an empty, coded K1244R for 32 Long Lualoy 90 gr., Coated Bullet that rates good to very good with missing flaps and mild wear and ingrained dirt. (76679-2G)
3539. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of two empty UMC two-piece boxes featuring the rounded corners and plaid panels. The first one has a teal-blue top label that has darkened to the extent that it blends somewhat with the black print that reads "Fifty (U.M.C. oval logo) .38 Cal./Primed Metallic/Case Cartridges, (in large font)/For Pistols/With Swaged Bullets" over the company name and location. There is no side label present, allowing for the possibility that the fully intact bottom could be a mismatch. Its left side has the caliber handwritten in ink and the overall rating is perhaps good to very good with the lid showing moderate wear and is missing much of the plaid covering, the bottom is plain buff. The second box has original matching components including a lid with a green top label that includes "50 .38 Cal., Long/ Rim-Fire Cartridges/Swaged (image of cartridge including U head stamp and "38 Long") Bullets". Also included are the U trademark logos at each side and the bottom consisting of the company name in curved format and location below it. This version has a maroon side label, which in this case is about 80% present with most loss at the front. The box is fully intact with as is the bottom guarantee label and exhibits mild to moderate wear particularly at the edges. (76679-3)
3540. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of three 50 rd. size boxes for .22 Short beginning with a full UMC two-piece with the yellow-green body under maroon labels including a top one with a middle section with "Black Powder" at the left followed by the picture with caliber enclosed and to its right resides the white U circular logo. The lower portion consists of the rounded layout of "The Union Metallic Cartridge Co.". The side label is about 50% present, the bottom one nearly fully present with some text scuffed away. Scuffing is also evident in scattered areas overall as is some dark staining and the ammunition exhibits moderately oxidized tips. The second box is a maroon one-piece 53-S coded picture box with a middle section of the slightly faded top beginning with the Remington UMC red dot logo with the cartridge image to its right and a dual language trademark statement to its right. The right panel exhibits a nice picture of the Remington Repeater Rifle and the edges show up to moderate scuffing in areas. Enclosed are about 35 rds. of darkened but clean correct "Lesmok" cartridges. The third box is Remington Kleanbore 22 Short Spatter-Less in the customary green, red and white colors and bearing a 5822 code. The box has a top panel that also features separate Remington circular red dot and Dupont oval logos and the tray holds about 45 excellent condition original cartridges. A great addition for a .22 collection especially considering it covers various phases of UMC and Remington. (76679-5C)
3541. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of Remington/UMC boxes and components. First is a matching two-piece with red labels including a faded top one stating that it is .38 Short R.F. The code 230 is visible at the bottom right as is a large two digit number written in thick marker near the cartridge picture at the center. The box shows tape repairs and a missing but present left lid panel. Enclosed are about 30 correct cartridges. The second item is a lid and inner wall only with the light blue top label informing that this is .56-56 Spencer. This is the square shaped 25 rd. size with the red dot logo including both companies and rating good to very good with a dark stain at the lower left and abutting the ink marking. Also included are two UMC lids, beginning with a .22 Cal. Short with a maroon label over lime green and a .22 Cal Long with green over buff. These two rate about near very good overall with no splits. Lastly we have two loose top labels with bold color and text and including both company logos consisting of a red .22 Short and a green .22 Extra Long. A variety that can possibly fill gaps or upgrade currently owned items. (76679-9B)

3542. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of two UMC boxes beginning with a square shaped two-piece with turquoise labels including a fully intact top one that includes "25 .56-56 Spencer/Rim-Fire Cartridges" and exhibits a large image of the cartridge between "Spencer Carbine". The side label is about 60-70% present and the bottom label, though its entire surface is affixed, shows moderate wear and scuffing. The lid shows a light old glue repair at the front and its label has a mostly darkened surface with scattered brighter areas, likely from recent wear. The box overall emits an almost even, or intentionally dark appearance and has a glue repaired bottom currently housing 14 correct cartridges. The second box is empty and features the rounded corners and the plaid cover and above it resides a fully intact tan top label indicating that this is .38 Cal. Automatic Colt Pistol. It exhibits strong text and a crisp cartridge image at its center and a handwritten number in pencil at its left. The box rates about very good overall with the usual wear and fading. (76679-9A)

3543. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of four Remington one-piece, 50 rd. size .22 boxes beginning with a full and excellent condition R28S code for .22 Winchester Hi-Speed Kleanbore with sides that include "Model 1890/.22 Remington Special". Next is the first of two with code No. 6622, with the first having a somewhat faded overall appearance including a top panel with an upper section that reads "Remington/Match" and a tray housing six sample cartridges. The second is empty but virtually as-new with bold color and sharp edges and a top panel with its upper section reading "Remington/Rifle Match". The last item, coded R11K, for .22 Short Hi-Speed Kleanbore Kleankote is close to excellent in rating but does exhibit white areas that have faded to tan and some minor edge wear. (76679-49CH)

3544. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of five Remington Kleanbore one-piece boxes, beginning with a code 5322, a square shaped and apparently full 100 rd. of 22 B. B. Caps rating excellent overall. The second item is also an apparently, or if not, virtually full 100 rd. size, this one with a lower profile as it is for 22 C. B. Caps and coded 5622 and in excellent condition. Next is an R58 for .267 Remington Hi-Speed and, like the last two in this lot, is empty. This one is structurally sound with mild corner wear and a few small scuffs but near excellent with white areas that have darkened to tan. The last two are for .32 Long beginning with an R142 code with the dog bone style logo as the focal point of the front, that like much of the structurally intact box exhibits dark staining. The last one exhibits a somewhat weaker stance with no inner tray and scattered wear and creasing. This version shows the caliber within the red stripe on the ends and "Kleanbore" against the green backdrop. A diversified lot for collectors interested in all things Remington. (76679-2H)

3545. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of three UMC two-piece 100 rd. size boxes, each with an overall square and low profile presentation beginning with a rounded corner style with the dark marble-like backdrop to, in this instance, light green labels, including a top one that includes ".22 Cal. Extra Long", and like the other two in this lot features "Rim-Fire Cartridges" above the section with the cartridge image between "Swaged Bullets" and below that is the trademark U logo, with the bottom consisting of the company name in a curved configuration and the location below that. This first box is missing most of its side label and the inner wall has been compromised to the extent that is split and pliable in areas, and the bottom compartment currently holds 14 correct and very good cartridges bringing the overall rating to about good plus as the lid shows glue repairs and the bottom has a sticker attached to the fully present guarantee label. The last two are empty and also have green labels, this second box having an emerald green-like shade with strong print declaring it as .22 Cal. Short. The bottom guarantee and orange side sealing are virtually fully intact with nice color and text bringing the rating to very good plus with light glue reinforcements to the lid corners and the sealing label still attached to at the left side. The last item rates good with significant glue repairs and a top label indicating that it is .25 Cal. Short. (76679-49CJ)

3546. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of three Remington/UMC boxes of the two-piece, 50 rd., rounded corner with plaid panel variety. The first one is empty and has a faded orange top label with equally faded text indicating that this is for ".32 Calibre Long No. 2 Pistol Cartridges". Also included is the old style UMC logo at the top left and the image of the cartridge as the main focal point. The United Metallic Cartridge Company name and location make up the bottom. The side sealing label is more than 90% present and is a brighter orange with darker text. The two compartments merge nicely and the box shows only mild edge wear and the panels retain nearly all of their "wallpaper". The lid has a handwritten ink note at the top line and the interior shows light glue reinforcements. The other two boxes have mismatched tops and bottoms, beginning with a top with a sky blue label, with a top line that reads ".38 Short R. F." and a bottom that reads "Blank Cartridges" on what remains of its side label. The last box has two top labels with the first one reading ".38 Long R.F." and "150 Grs. Bullet", it has peeled back to reveal an affixed label that includes "Long Colt Smokeless" and "148 Grs. Bullet". Additionally, the box is currently nearly full of two different calibers. An interesting lot that can be used to upgrade one's existing components. (76679-3A)

3547. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a lot of four one-piece .22 boxes beginning with two full ones by CIL beginning with an RF-21 coded Whiz-Bang 22 Long High Velocity with the red-orange and yellow graphics, which in this instance have an ink scribble just to the left of the cartridge image but otherwise rates excellent, as do each of the boxes in this lot. The second is coded TT-50 and is from the period where blue, yellow and white graphics were laid out in a horizontal configuration, in this case including a top section that reads ".22 Long Rifle" to the left of the image and to its right resides "Smokeless Greased". The next box is empty and is by Western Auto Stores & Associates and has a black top panel that includes in large yellow cursive "Revelation" and also evident is "Super Range" and "22 Long Rifle Non Fouling". The last box has a blue background to white and red graphics that include the end panels that provide the caliber: .22 LR and also reiterates "Xcess Speed". The front panel informs us that the manufacturer is Federal Cartridge Corp. of Minneapolis, Minn. Enclosed are two sample rds. with the HP head stamp. A diversified lot in excellent condition to add to your .22 box collection. (76679-49CJ)

3548. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This lot consists of two boxes by Dominion Cartridge Co. The first of these two-piece boxes with maroon labels is a full 25 rd. size of 56-46 with a top label exhibiting a large "25" above the cartridge image and the box has areas of mild to moderate soiling including a large dark stain at the upper left top panel. The lid has a glue repaired right panel and a missing left one, the back being split, the front with a hand written note. The bottom is in a better state with significantly less soiling and intact glue repairs. The ammunition appears to be original and rates very good with a small amount of white powder on the lead. The second box is an empty .32 Long and its top label has a different layout than that of the above as this one has a top line with "50 (image of cartridge with "Long" within it) .32" and, like the first one, follows with "Metallic Cartridges" and the company info and logo below that. The side label is a buff color, virtually identical to the box panels, with most of its text still legible and showing a tape repair on the bottom portion. The bottom has a split at the front and right panels and a fully intact but moderately scuffed guarantee label. (76679-9A)

3549. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is a full, two-piece 50 rd. box of Dominion Cartridge Co. .38 Short with a faded maroon top label with the top line of black print showing the cartridge image with “.38 Short” displayed along the case. The quantity is at its left and the caliber to its right, below is “Metallic Cartridges”, and the company name, location and logo reside below that. The label shows numerous small storage marks, apparently from weight pressing against the enclosed cartridges. The side sealing label retains bold maroon color with the exception of the right side which has faded about evenly with the top label. The black text is equally bold and the front and right provide the caliber, the back shows the company name and the left is plain. Structurally the box is quite sound with the right side showing tears to the lid corners and the bottom with a wavy appearance, possibly from moisture. The correct 50 cartridges rate good plus to very good with light oxidation and tarnish. (76679-11B)
3550. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of three boxes for Poultney’s Metallic Cartridges. These are 10 rd., buff colored boxes and labels, each with strong legible black print that includes “Patented December 15th, 1863”, including a first one with a lid that remains slightly attached at the front and has a label stating that it is “12 Caps./For/Smith’s Breech-Loading Carbine./No. 1 50-100 Caliber/Address, Poultney & Trimble, Baltimore Md.”. The box includes a loose second top label of identical text and an apparently correct sample cartridge. The second box also has a sample cartridge and is in a slightly better state of condition, rating perhaps near very good with less foxing and cleaner overall and, like the one described above, exhibits a lid with a curved profile, this one still attached at the rear. The top label is peeling back slightly and indicates that this is “12 Caps./For/Gallager’s Breech Loading Carbine./50/100 Calibre.”. The last one is an emptied and meticulously re-sealed example with a top label that includes “12 Caps./For/Maynard’s Breech Loading Carbine./50-100 Calibre./Manufactured By/B. C. English, Springfield, Mass”. This interesting piece rates very good with mild foxing. (76679-14)
3551. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOX This is a two-piece box with a fully intact green top label with a decorative border and text that reads “Forty-Two, Primed/Metallic Cartridges/For/Spencer Carbine./Cal. 50, - - Model 1865./Manufactured By/ Sage Ammunition Works./Middletown Conn.”. A small portion of the green has worn to the buff tone of the lid which is a different hue, almost pinker than that of the bottom compartment. The lid shows an interior with tape reinforced corners and exterior corners with tape residue. The bottom also shows tape repaired corners and is filled with form cut layers of corrugated cardboard acting as support and quite successfully as this is a sturdy outfit as configured. Overall the box shows light scattered ingrained dirt and the bottom panel showing minor darker spotting, likely grime. (76679-14A)
3552. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION PACKETS This is a lot of two empty packets by H. W. Mason, beginning with one “Made of American Powder Co.’s Powder” for “Revolving Holster Pistol, 44-100 inch Calibre”. The empty six rd. packet remains hinged at the back and retains bold black print and strong varnish. The second packet, “Made of Hazard’s Powder” is also empty but opened at its left side and exhibits a darker patina over strong black text that includes “Police Pistols,/36/100 Calibre. An about very good condition lot overall. (76679-14B)
3553. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE BOXES This lot consists of two empty vintage two-piece boxes beginning with a very rare item by the short lived manufacturer C. D. Leet of Springfield Mass. The lid has a yellow top label with strong black print that includes “Forty-Two/Smith & Wesson’s/Patent Metallic/Primed Cartridges (in the largest font of the label)/Patented April 17, 1869./For Spencer Carbine-Calibre 50./Model 1865”. The bottom has a front panel also retaining its original label, this one with the header “Directions for Loading Spencer Repeating Rifle”. This label has more foxing and wear than the top one causing much of the very small font text to be difficult to discern, if at all in isolated areas. In addition the box shows areas of moderate dark spotting, particularly the left panel which is essentially a mottled dark brown. The lid and bottom show some glue repairs, but overall this is a very acceptable survivor. The other item in this lot is by “Sharp’s Rifle Manuf’g Co.” as depicted at the lower portion of the top label which also states that it once held “10 Cartridges/12 Caps/For Sharps’ Improved Rifle/52/100 Calibre”. Also noteworthy is that it retains a portion of a label depicting the names of intersecting streets and their likeness in illustrated form. The condition is about good to very good with the top layer of the upper right portion of the top label missing and a separated and split lid at that side. (76679-14C)
3554. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOX This is a salesman’s sample box by Robin Hood Ammunition Co. for 12 gauge shotgun shells. The purple pebble-grained one-piece box opens to reveal the lid’s white inner label with black text that includes “Not In A Trust/Samples/Loaded Paper Shot Gun Shells/From The/ Robin Hood Ammunition Company/Swanton, Vermont, U. S. A.”. The box rates about good to very good with a weakened hinge and moderate scuffing and evidence of contact with liquid. Currently enclosed in this rare box are a few mixed fired cases with Robin Hood head stamps and an alloy medallion of the company logo. (76679-14D)
3555. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of two boxes from different manufacturers beginning with a Crittenden & Tibbals, an empty two-piece with the marble-like pattern cover layer and with nearly fully intact emerald green labels including a top one that reads “Fifty/Primed Metallic Cartridges./No. 46-100./For Remington Carbine./Manufactured by the/Crittenden & Tibbals Manuf’g Co./South Coventry, Conn., U. S./Under Smith & Wesson’s patent, Issued April 17th,1860”. The label has a few small scuffs and is peeling back a bit at the lower left but is in better condition than the balance of the box that has three holes, including the front lid corners and the bottom left rear. Overall the box rates about good plus with glue and tape repairs and moderate scattered scuffing. The second box is also a two-piece, this one with an orange body and a dark brown top label with faded gold text indicating that this is by National Revolver Cartridges and once contained “Fifty No. 1”. The box rates good plus with bright orange color with moderate tape residue and a large marking in ink on the right side. The lid has a hole and a missing front panel. Also included are a loose “No. 32” lid with the same label color scheme with bolder text and a loose label with the header “Round Teat No. 2”. (76679-14E)
3556. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is an opened and full 50 rd. Winchester box with emerald green labels including a top one that includes “50 (cartridge image with no exposed head stamp and along the case “Extra Long”) No. 32/Metallic Cartridges/Manufactured By The/Winchester/Repeating Arms Co./New Haven Conn. U.S.A.”. Also included are the H trademark logo at the left and the Stetsons at the right center. The label is fully intact with nice color and black text but does have an area of moderate scuffing at the company name. The side label is 90% intact with a layer of cellophane tape, now darkened and covering most of its surface that includes the cartridge on each panel and a number written at the lid’s rear. The box shows wear mainly at the upper left and the ammunition rates about good to very good with mild oxidation. (76679-21)

3557. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This is a lot of two Winchester two-piece 50 rd. size boxes for .32 Long beginning with one with an olive green top label of the version with the cartridge image at the upper middle with an exposed H head stamp and displaying .32 Long along the casing and to its left resides the quantity and to its right is “.32 Caliber”. The beginning pages provide a history and overview of employee lifestyle at King Mills, Ohio where the plant was located. Included is an impressive two-page portrait of the facility and the ensuing pages exhibit actual photos of various departments. The impressive cover is a mottled gray heavy paper with raised letters in the form of gold "Peters Ammunition" including a light blue border. Below that is the company "P" logo in orange and the bottom contains a smaller "Catalogue No. 40". The back cover features a larger company logo. The cover has a few light liquid stains, and some minor creasing and tears where it extends slightly beyond the papers' edge. The book contains 40 pages of product information and at the beginning is a summary of the history and impact on the military and law enforcement as well as the "development of mining, cattle raising, agriculture and transportation". The cover shows mild soiling and wear and the pages show a tear and some lesser spotting. Included is a January 1931-dated price list of corresponding items. Included on page 20, which provides the information on the Model 14, is an official company stamp stating in red ink on the otherwise entirely black and white pages: "The Model 14 rifle has been discontinued and replaced by the Model 25." This is a burgundy-colored tin with the front label also stating that it is "The Rifle Gunpowder" and "Purposely Prepared & Adapted to Rifle & Percussion Guns of Every Gauge". The back label adds "Under the Patronage of H.R.H. Prince Albert". The second is ovular in configuration, a bit shorter and with spout cap. Based on the bright red bottom panel this one exhibits a faded body with moderate flaking. The large paper front label is nearly fully intact and reads "Eagle Gun Powder/Duck Shooting/No.2/Dupont/Wilmington Delaware". A nice pair to add to your powder can collection. (76679-25E)

The last can in the lot is also Dupont, still smaller and unlike the others, has rounded corners and features the old style label with the Indian in hunting mode, the back reads FFFg. Each of the cans comes with original cap and the overall condition is very good with some having hand written markings, fading and general handling marks. (76679-25G)

Loverin Agent, size 1/2 lb. with a faded gold ID and minor dings and handling marks. The second one has no discernable ID but is likely the 1/4 lb. size version of the one described above. This has considerably less black finish retention, or approximately 40% as opposed to the 97% of the other one. The third one is 7" tall, has no discernable markings and exhibits moderate flaking on one side and scattered minor dings and handling marks. It comes with a reproduction Eagle Sporting Gunpowder label in excellent condition. (76679-25H)

3679. LOT OF POWDER TINS This is a lot of two vintage tins beginning with one by American Powder Mills: a red can measuring 4"x1 1/4"x6" that shows significant crazing and fading causing the lithos to be barely discernable but a vague image of the duck in flight is present on the front, as is "Dead Shot". The back circular image likely originally depicted the hunter in forest scene and the top which includes brass cap, "FG". The second item also exhibits a red surface, this one without crazing but retaining about 70% with the bottom panel retaining 20% black finish. The front panel retains about 85% of its graphics with loss due to handling marks and fading and indicates that this is an example by Mass. Powder Works with text including "A.C.Fay.Potter&Cilley./Officer 14 City Wharf./Boston". This is a small rectangular tin measuring 3 1/4"x1 1/4"x4" and missing the cap. The top and bottom retain most of their gold finish and there is some white discoloration around top and bottom seams. The other two are by Hazard with the first being a small red tin with a nearly fully intact white label with hunter taking a shot with dog at his side and above it reads "Kentucky Rifle Gunpowder G". The can retains about 80% finish with loss due to handling marks and some oxidation at top seam. The last one is taller (6") and features a strong green surface and front ID section accented by illustration of duck hunter having much success and stating that this is Hazard Smokeless for Shotguns Only. The back has a healthy loading instructions section and a included is a nice brass cap bringing the condition of this can to near excellent with the other two which also include caps come in at about near very good. (76679-25J)

H.". The third one is taller, that being 5 1/2" to the other's 3 1/2" and with a red background to an impressive large image of falcon as the focal point of this Oriental Powder Mills Falcon Duck Powder of Boston, Mass. The back exhibits a bright royal blue logo that reads "Falcon Duckling No. 3 Gunpowder". The can exhibits modest handling marks and moderate black spotting, perhaps grime. The cans are missing the caps and the first and third in this lot are also missing the spouts. (76679-25K)

3682. POWDER CAN LOT This is a large red can that is 7 1/4" tall with a diameter of 6 1/4" and a fully intact white label that includes "Rifle/Cartridge Powder/Manufactured expressly For Loading Cartridge Shells/(image of lever rifle)/(image of cartridge with "U.S. Govt. 45" enclosed)/By the/American Powder Mills/Boston Mass.". The label also exhibits brown stains resulting from oxidation occurring in that area which also includes a small whole. The balance of the can shows scattered handling marks and oxidation pitting with the greatest amount at the seam. The top has less blemishes and includes original cap. (76679-25L)

3683. LOT OF POWDER TINS This is a lot of three of similar size, (approximately 5"-6" in height) and beginning with a dark green example with a label that reads "Dupont Superfine Fg Gunpowder /Wilmington Delaware". The label shows extensive staining from underlying oxidation that is also noticeable throughout much of the surface. This one has no spout or cap. Second is a better condition orange colored tin with strong black print that includes "Shotgun E.C. Powder./Manufactured By The American E.C. Powder Co. Works Oakland, N.J.". Can includes spout cap and about half of the top sealing label, bringing the rating to near excellent. The last one is a bright orange with detailed forest scene including deer, raccoons and dog. The text read "Prepared & Adapted to Rifle Percussion Guns". The top portion includes a red surface with scattered handling marks, spout and no cap. The wraparound label is excellent but provides no maker name. (76679-25M)

3684. LOT OF POWDER TINS This is a lot of three beginning with a 4" tall oval shaped example with a black body and faded identification that retains enough of the bottom section to indicate that this is by Stryon & Co. and a middle section with intersecting long arms in the form of an X. Also evident are handling marks and a bent spout with cap attached. The next one is about an inch taller with the same general shape and less black finish. Still attached is a round white label with black print that reads at the top "American Rifle Gunpowder/Lafins, Smith & Boies" and "Successors To/Lafins & Smith", with the illustration of the man standing by his dog. This one also includes spout cap. The last one is round with no cap present and no maker name on label that reads "Prepared & Adapted to Rifle Percussion Guns". The label shows moderate black staining, likely from contact with some liquid and the red top retains about 60% red finish with loss due to contact wear. The overall condition of the lot is good to very good. (76679-25N)
3685. LOT OF POWDER TINS This lot of three begins with one with an orange wraparound label that reads "Imperial Gun Powder" on the front and the back indicates that the manufacturer is Eureka Powder Works of New Durham N.H. The next one is Kentucky Rifle Gunpowder by the Hazard Powder Co., a once black finished tin that is now almost entirely bare metal with scattered light oxidation spots and a faded label with the picture of the hunter aiming his gun with dog in full stride. The cap is included with this one. The last one, unlike the others which have an ovalar form, is designed with sharp edges and is taller, measuring 7" in height with a red body and orange label that reads "Mathewson's FFF Gun Powder". This one retains about 95% finish but not its spout or cap. (76679-25P)
3686. LOT OF TINS This lot of two tins begins with a large, approximately 6 lb. size Dead Shot Gunpowder can by H. Howell & Co. with about 85% black finish retained and showing small dents and dings. Much of the gold identification has faded or worn away and the cap is included. The other tin is for Pastime Plug Tobacco, a red box measuring 12"x9"x4" and featuring an illustration of hunter in field shooting birds of prey with dog by his side. This box by John Finzer & Bros. of Louisville, KY. opens to reveal a colorful equestrian scene on the interior lid and retains the three brass hooks. There is some edge wear and the lid front has a somewhat wavy profile. A nice looking box that will fit in nicely with a gun powder can or sporting display. (76679-25Q)
3687. LOT OF POWDER TINS This lot of three 1 lb. tins starts off with a Hazard Powder Co. identified as Duck Shooting Gunpowder on the nearly fully intact label depicting duck in standing position. The back label is about 50% present and the can has no cap and several handling scratches dings and dents. Next is a New York Sporting Powder by Lafin & Rand with yellow-orange label of waterfowl in habitat and exhibiting significant peeling to back side. The top exhibits moderate oxidation including the cap. The last one shows moderate crazing to its mottled olive green and tan surfaces allowing for little in the way of discernable text. It is clear that this is Hazard Smokeless and the tin retains its cap. A good plus to near very good condition lot overall. (76679-25R)
3688. POWDER CAN LOT This is a 6 1/4 lb. size with a body that retains about 30% faded red finish with the top showing mostly a mottled faded thin paint, surface oxidation and bare metal. The bottom retains about 50% bright red with the balance in the white and bears about 80% of the original label. The faded white label with black print features the picture of the dog in pointing mode and above it is "Telegraph Sporting Gunpowder" and below is "Amer. Powder Company/Henry J. Hosmer,Treas.". Included is the spout cap. (76679-25S)

The next one also states that it is Orange Rifle Powder, also by Lafin & Rand, this one stating Newark and with cap, but this one being in a lesser state of condition with the label mostly a mixture of dark brown and off white with metal surfaces exhibiting an almost even brown oxidation. The last one rates about good with no spout or cap present and about 50% of a front label present and peeling. The metal surfaces exhibit a mottled thinned and faded black finish and bare metal. The last two are of a more rectangular configuration as opposed to the previous two with a more oval design with both having spouts and caps intact. The first of these has a diamond shaped label over a red painted surface that exhibits considerable wear and or flaking with light oxidation forming along the top. The label is a mottled tan and gold and includes "Lafin Rand Powder Co. The last one retains only about 10% red finish and a portion of the label indicating that it is also a Lafin & Rand product. The other one is in a lesser state of condition with darkened panels and some mild mildew staining. It is a nice collectible nevertheless, it being a hard to find example by the United States Cartridge Co. with the New York address. The box is bound by nails and retains most of the stamping including red company logos and black text identifying it as "12 Ga. Shot-Shells". A couple of rare boxes available in a single lot. The under-folding bayonet is roller-spring loaded and features an old 1 3/4" triangular bayonet. The bag-shaped European walnut grip rates very good and is nicely checkered with scalloped cheeks at the frame. The gun will hold on the half cock notch which is worn; it does not hold at full cock. The lockplate has an unbridled frizzen and faceted pan with gooseneck cock and light engraving, it is a brown patina with the upper components showing light oxidation. There is no triggerguard but there is a simple teardrop shaped cylindrical trigger present, it would appear as though this bottom metal is of more rudimentary construction than the upper components. There is a ramrod thimble and tailpipe of brass as well as a lightly engraved sideplate. The walnut stock appears to be of later construction and is somewhat rudimentary, likely using salvaged parts from an older pistol to build this arm. The triggerguard, hammer, frizzen and trigger are a dull gunmetal gray, lightly oxidized. The bag-shaped walnut grip is somewhat rudimentary and rates about good. The mechanism seems to function although there is no provision for a frizzen spring (there is no need for one as this is not a working firing pistol. (36710-4) {non-gun}

There has been a custom backstrap added and custom frontstrap with a very large brass triggerguard which would easily accommodate a gloved hand; the workmanship is rather rudimentary. 4167. GERMAN PERCUSSION DOUBLE ACTION REVOLVER BY BAADER .38 cal., 6" octagon barrel with an oxidized bore. This is an interesting revolver and was somewhat fancy in its day. The metal surfaces are an over dull gun-metal gray beneath a light coating of oxidation and areas of light pitting, there are some areas of moderate oxidation. The frame flats, hammer and triggerguard bow all show some nice quality light loose flowing scroll, the top flat inlaid in silver "F Baader in Munchen". The one-piece ebony or very dark walnut grip rates about very good, it is smooth and has shrunken somewhat with the years. One nipple is missing in it appears as though there are other small parts missing, likely including the trigger spring as it must be held forward to catch the hammer. (36873-6) {ANTIQUÉ} (150/250)

The bottom furniture is iron with the triggerguard front extension showing a light pineapple finial. The stock rates is about good and is very dark showing overall minor dings and handling marks from the years and nice checkering in the area of the grip.
